

secretary of commerce point out that many of the influential Indiana Republicans, including Postmaster General New, Will Hays, former chairman of the Republican national committee; George Lockwood, former secretary of the committee; Everett Sanders, former Indiana representative, and now secretary to President Coolidge; former Gov. Goodrich, and others, are aligned against Senator Watson, and will support Hoover.

Situation at Indianapolis.
Indianapolis, Ind., March 8.—[Special.]—Herbert Hoover's formal entry into the Indiana primary, against James E. Watson, Indiana's senior senator, came just before the lists for the May election were closed this evening. Watson is generally understood to be pledged in several ways to support Vice President Charles G. Dawes and, because of the Watson camp predictions that Watson would take the state uncontested, Frank O. Lowden did not file in Indiana.

Announcement of Hoover's entry was made by Oscar O. Foellinger, Fort Wayne newspaper publisher, who was named Hoover's state manager after he had consulted with the secretary of commerce over long distance telephone.

Hoover's final word to Foellinger, it is understood, was "to use his own judgment." Foellinger immediately filed the petition.

Doobis Indiana's Chance.
Mr. Foellinger said tonight: "My conclusion from inquiry in various parts of the country is that Indiana's chance of obtaining the Republican nomination this year is most remote. A poll I have taken of Indiana Republicans shows a plurality in favor of Mr. Hoover. This sentiment can find no means of expression except through the candidacy of Secretary Hoover in the primary. His friends will do all they can to secure a majority in his favor. The movement is pro-Hoover and not anti-Watson."

"The great popularity of Secretary Hoover among Democrats and Independents will mean much to the Republican party in November."

Thurman "Regrets."
"I regret, that Mr. Hoover has deemed it best to strike at party harmony by invading our state," said Mr. Bert Thurman, national campaign manager for Watson. "We are prepared, however, to meet the challenge and have no fear of the outcome."

Senator Watson has already been endorsed by the ten Indiana Republican representatives in congress at Washington and by the Republican state committee. Officers of the Republican Editorial association have also approved the senator's candidacy.

Norris Pledged Support.
Lincoln, Neb., March 8.—[Special.]—The so-called Norris-Lowden slate of delegates to the national Republican convention pledged itself to support Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska for President in a statement issued today.

North Dakota for Lowden.
Jamestown, N. D., March 8.—[Special.]—Former Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois was endorsed for the Republican presidential nomination in the platform adopted today by the North Dakota convention of "real" or Anti-Nonpartisan league Republicans here. Former Gov. R. A. Moses was endorsed for United States senator. Mr. Lowden also has been endorsed by the Nonpartisan league faction of the Republican party.

KEEPS OUT OF INDIANA.
The name of former Governor Lowden will not be entered in Indiana's presidential preference primary. Clarence F. Buck, head of the Lowden campaign, asserted yesterday.

"There never has been any conflict."

"MOTHER OF AMERICAN CANDIES"

GILLIOM IN INDIANA RACE FOR SENATOR AGAINST ROBINSON

Indianapolis, Ind., March 8.—[Special.]—A three cornered race for the Republican nomination for junior United States senator from Indiana was assured tonight when Attorney General Arthur L. Gilliom of South Bend filed a petition formally entering his name as a contestant against Senator Arthur J. Robinson and Solon J. Carter, both of Indianapolis.

Gilliom has attracted national attention by his crusade against the Klan and the Indiana political knavery. In his announcement Mr. Gilliom said: "I'll fight it out on the issue of old fashioned Republicanism against klanism and fanaticism." The latter is a thrust at the Anti-Saloon league. Mr. Gilliom takes a stand for prohibition, and appeals for legislation that will permit of prescription liquor for medicinal purposes.

SEAS BELONG TO NOBODY, FRENCH ADMIRAL AVERS

PARIS, March 8.—"The high seas belong to nobody, not even the strongest," Admiral Ketye, commander of the French fleet in the Mediterranean during the war, and a former member of the supreme naval council, told the American club today in what seemed to be an attack on the British pretensions toward a monopoly of the high seas.

LAUNCH FIGHT TO WIN CALIFORNIA VOTE FOR WALSH

McAdoo Leads List of Delegate Candidates.

San Francisco, Cal., March 8.—[Special.]—A campaign was launched today to win for Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana the vote of the California delegation to the national Democratic convention at Houston.

A list of candidates for delegates favorable to Senator Walsh, headed by William G. McAdoo of Los Angeles, was announced by J. O. Davies, chairman of the northern California campaign committee. Besides Mr. McAdoo, the list includes the names of Kathleen Norris, the writer, and George Creel, who directed the government's war time information bureau.

Eight delegates-at-large and two from each of the eleven congressional districts are to be chosen at the state primary May 1. As California will have 26 votes in the convention, each of the delegates from the congressional districts would have one vote, and each of the delegates-at-large would have half a vote.

Walsh His Own "Platform."

The statement issued with the list of delegates said:

"The greatest need of the country today is a revival of civic conscience and a return to honest government. Unscrupulous wealth, within recent years, bought with its money the honor of men high in the public service, polluted government at its source and now defies the United States senate in the latter's efforts to get at all the truth of this unsavory mess."

"No one will doubt that Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana possesses the rugged honesty, intelligence and devotion to public duty that fit him for leadership in the fight ahead of us, and this group of men and women submit his name to the Democratic voters of California in the confident belief that Senator Walsh is all the platform we need."

Three Cornered Fight.

"With Walsh in the White House there will be no certificate of character issued to a Daugherty and no delivery of the public domain to a Fall to be bartered to the highest bidder. There will be rather a restoration of high purpose, clean, wholesome administration of public business, and a return to that equality before the law without which there can be no permanent safety for organized society."

The winning delegation in the three cornered Democratic fight will constitute an instructed body of delegates to the national convention favoring the candidate they sponsored in the primary.

Three groups of delegates will contest in the Democratic camp. One favors the nomination of Gov. Al Smith of New York and another favors Senator James A. Reed of Missouri. The formality of selecting the Reed group of delegates has not been completed.

On the Republican side, no candidate has appeared to contest with Herbert Hoover for the California delegation.

JOHN ERICSSON LEAGUE MEETS IN ROCKFORD TODAY

United States Senator Charles S. Deneen and Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, candidate for congresswoman-at-large, are expected to be speakers at the thirty-fourth annual convention of the John Ericsson League of Illinois, which will open in Rockford today. Nine hundred members are to be in attendance. The speeches are to be delivered following the annual banquet at the Shrine temple.

Louis L. Emmerson, candidate for governor, Oscar E. Carleton, candidate for attorney general, and Oscar Nelson, candidate for state auditor, head a long list of state and national political figures who are also to be in attendance. Other speeches are to be made by Congressman John T. Buckbee, Assistant Postmaster General Warren Irving Glover, and George E. Q. Johnson, United States district attorney for the Chicago district.

Gov. Len Small has sent his regrets, giving the necessity for his presence at road hearings as his reason.

Washington, D. C., March 8.—[Special.]—Oliver Wendell Holmes, veteran associate justice of the Supreme court, today celebrated his eighty-seventh birthday out of his familiar harness, the flowing robe. For the last ten days he has been confined to his home, unable, because of a cold, to participate in the proceedings of the court of which he has been a member for more than 25 years.

NEW DIRIGIBLE TWICE AS LONG AS LOS ANGELES

Atlantic City, N. J., March 8.—[Special.]—The dirigible which the government is considering building, and for which plans have already been drawn, will be twice as long as the Los Angeles, its motors will be included in the hull, and it will have garage space for four airplanes, Commander Charles E. Rosendahl, commander of the Los Angeles, said today in an address before the Kiwanis club.

Commander Rosendahl said there would not be any rivalry between airplanes and lighter-than-air craft, as each had its own specific use—the airplane for flights up to about 1,000 miles, and the dirigible for long distance flights.

PATTEN REVEALS $25,000 SINCLAIR OIL BOND DEAL

to G. O. P. Fund.

his frank admission that he was a financial angel for Republican and even Democratic campaign fund so-licitors and "a soft mark" who had been "tapped" for $25,000 in political contributions between 1919 and 1924, inclusive.

The list he handed over to Senator Walsh showed substantial contributions in 1919 and 1920 to the Hoover, Lowden, and Wood campaign funds alike. It showed gifts to both the Republican senatorial and congressional campaign committees and the Republican state committees in Iowa and Indiana as well as in his home state of Illinois. It showed he had contributed $2,500 in 1920 to further the candidacy of a Democrat for state attorney of Cook county.

What particularly interested Senator Walsh, however, was the total of $28,637.85 contributed during the six year period to the Republican national committee alone through Uphaus. Mr. Patten carefully had attached to the statement the canceled check for each item listed, and Senator Walsh asked to see the check covering a $25,000 payment to Uphaus on Sept. 5, 1923.

Tells of $25,000 Gift.
"Will you tell the circumstances under which this contribution was made?" asked the senator.

"Yes, sir," answered Mr. Patten, leaning forward in his chair. "On that date, Mr. Fred Uphaus called at my office and told me that there was a large deficit in connection with the Republican campaign fund of 1920 in the shape of a loan down in a bank in New York City—a deficit of several hundred thousand dollars, and that there was a lot of United States bonds put up as collateral to secure the loan, and they wanted to sell the bonds."

"He wanted me to contribute $25,000 to make up that deficit and he would give me $25,000 in government Liberty bonds."

"My first impression was—well, I was indignant and mad at the tremendous expense the Republican committee had gone to in the campaign," said Mr. Patten. "I simply stormed and I am afraid, senator, I used bad language."

"That will be overlooked here," promised Senator Walsh, when he could make himself heard over the laughter.

"You mean I may repeat the language?" asked Mr. Patten, shaking with laughter himself. "I used, I went on, serious again, 'but I saw the necessity of paying off that indebtedness and I immediately went to my private secretary and asked him to write out this check for $25,000 on account of this deficit that existed. Mr. Uphaus did not have the bonds with him at the time he called at my office but he said he had them in his office, and I could call there and get them."

"I went home that night still sore—I hated to give up the money and particularly to pay for a dead horse—even the senators guffawed at that—and I wondered what in the world Uphaus said those bonds to me for and why he did not sell them in New York City, the biggest market in the world for bonds."

"The more I thought of it," continued Mr. Patten, "the less I liked my check—it was too late to refuse. 'Sometimes previously, maybe two or three weeks—I am on the building committee of the Evanston hospital and we were building a large addition to the hospital and I had offered

COL. STEWART GIVES BOND ON OIL QUIZ CONTEMPT CHARGES

Col. Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of directors of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, appeared yesterday before United States Commissioner James R. Glass and gave bond of $5,000 to guarantee his appearance in the district of Columbia court for trial on charges of contempt. The indictment was based on the refusal of Col. Stewart to answer certain questions in connection with the senate Teapot Dome investigation.

Attorney John Hopkins, representing Col. Stewart, informed Commissioner Glass that his client desired to waive any legal fight to remove him to Washington.

Col. Stewart arrived at the federal building, accompanied by Attorney Hopkins, Attorney L. L. Stephens, and Edward Eagle Brown, vice president of the First National bank. Brown acted as surety on the $5,000 bond.

The removal warrant was read by Capt. Hal Carr, chief deputy United States marshal. Col. Stewart smilingly accepted service and inquired if his bond was acceptable.

to contribute $25,000 toward that building.

While I lay in bed that night thinking the matter over, I thought, 'I will take those bonds and take them to the Evanston hospital and tell them to sell them in payment of my contribution.'

"So, immediately the next day, or the second day, I went to Fred Uphaus's office in Chicago and got the bonds, took them out to the chairman of the building committee, who was C. M. Stevens, president of the City National bank of Evanston, and told him to take those bonds in payment of my subscription and sell them if he wanted to, and they did."

Mr. Patten submitted a list of the registry number of the bonds.

Q—What information did Mr. Uphaus give you at the time of the conversation concerning the amount of the deficit? asked Senator Walsh. A—You mean as to the amount?

Q—Yes. A—I understood it to be between $600,000 and $800,000, but this is just memory on my part, answered Mr. Patten. It was no large that, as I said, I lost my temper.

Q—I think our figures here rather confirm your recollection. What did he say as to the amount of the bonds that were up as collateral? A—That he did not say.

Q—Did he give you any information as to the amount of bonds that he had? A—No. Mr. Uphaus fell sick shortly after that.

Q—Have you any information about any other citizens of Chicago who made contributions such as those? A—There are a number of citizens of Chicago who contributed heavily to the campaign itself. I have known that, just like I contributed. I have no reason to doubt but what their contributions were perfectly legitimate.

Q—O, yes, but you have no information about any of them getting any bonds such as you got? A—No. I have no information of that kind.

Q—None of them ever talked with you about it? A—No. Probably the heaviest contributor in Chicago to the campaign fund, according to my belief, is Mr. Wiley.

Q—Who were the other gentlemen in Chicago who usually make rather substantial contributions to the Republican campaign fund? A—Mr. Eckhart, Mr. Arthur Cutten—it depends on what you call large contributions.

Q—Say $10,000 or more. A—I presume the McCormicks would come in that list.

Calls Self Democrat.
Q—I would suppose they contributed on the other side. A—Well, Cyrus calls himself a Democrat but I do not know. Cyrus is a Democrat, I guess, because he was born that way, but I think he votes the Republican ticket about as often as he does the other.

Q—Mr. Patten, at the time of this transfer of bonds to you was anything said regarding an agreement that had been put up the bonds? A—No, nothing of the kind.

Q—So far as you know there was never to be any action taken for reimbursement of the $25,000 in bonds that had been given to you? A—No.

Q—Do you confine your contributions to the Republican party alone? A—No, I have contributed to the Democratic party, because I had personal friends who were in the Democratic party.

Q—On account of that friendship they would come and tap me. [The crowded hearing room rocked with laughter again.]

Q—The information before us is to the effect that these bonds which were sent to Mr. Uphaus and with reference to which apparently he talked to you on Dec. 5, 1923, were turned over to Mr. Harry F. Sinclair.

Q—Two days thereafter, on Dec. 3, A—I do not know anything about that.

Bonds Mystery to Him.
Q—You did not know anything about the origin of the bonds? A—That was a mystery in my mind at the time where they came from and why they came to me and asked me to buy them. That was a mystery and not until the disclosure came in this oil scandal regarding the Continental Trading company did I have any suspicion in my mind that the bonds were in the shape that they now appear to be.

Q—Let me call your attention to another date. On Nov. 30, three days before these bonds were turned over to Mr. Hays, testimony was offered before this committee from the so-called New Mexico witnesses, in the investigation of the oil leases on the 30th day of November, showing a sudden accession of property on the part of Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior. Practically a prima facie case of the bribery of Fall had been made three days before these bonds were turned over. I suppose you read about those transactions in the newspaper.

A—Yes, I probably did, but I have forgotten about it.

Q—And you did not associate those bonds with that circumstance? A—No, not until you speak of it here now.

Q—Mr. Patten, did you have any oil holdings at all? A—I do not own a share of stock in any oil company in the world.

Q—This $25,000 contribution was on Dec. 5, 1923. I notice that in May and November of the same year you made contributions of $5,000 and at one time

$1,000 to Mr. Uphaus? A—Yes.

Q—Were there any bonds involved in those contributions? A—No, no, not at all.

Q—Nor in the contributions which were made early in 1924 to the state committee? A—No.

Q—The only bonds that were involved in so far as your dealings were concerned were in this $25,000 contribution? A—That is the only instance.

Q—Say that Mr. Patten was excused, and Mr. Hodges, who succeeded Uphaus as treasurer of the national committee, was called. Mr. Hodges asserted that when he took over the treasurership he was given none of Uphaus's books and the only records he received were a set of cards, listing past contributors and made up from a set in Uphaus's possession.

What Chicagoans Gave.
The important document he received at the time, according to his testimony, was a statement showing the total of contributions made to the national committee between Nov. 19, 1920, and June 1, 1924. The statement showed a total collection of $2,258,178.04, and was accompanied with a detailed list of contributors of amounts over $100.

As a result of a Supreme court decision in the Newberry case, which knocked out the federal corrupt practices act, no reports of contributions and expenditures were filed with the clerk of the house of representatives from 1921 until early in 1925, when a new corrupt practices act requiring quarterly reports was enacted.

The statement submitted by Mr. Hodges today discloses for the first time that during the period from Nov. 19, 1920, until June 1, 1924, Illinois contributed $269,816.56 to the Republican national committee's war chest and that Chicagoans in the years 1921, 1922, and 1923 contributed a total of $166,450.

Mr. Patten is credited in the report with a total contribution of $36,000 during the three years and the list includes the following:

E. M. Rosenthal, $25,000; George F. Getz, $11,000; J. Odgen Armour, $10,000; William W. Wiley, Jr., $10,000; Fred W. Uphaus, $5,750; Bernard A. Eckhart, $6,000; Edward F. Carey, $8,000; Samuel Insull, $5,000; A. Lanquist, $5,000; Rawleigh Warner, $4,000; S. L. Avery, $2,500; Kenneth McKenzie, $2,500; Joseph J. Morand, $2,500; John Burke, $2,000; L. B. Kuppenheimer, $2,000; E. J. Lehmann, $2,000.

Stewart Put Up $1,000.
The statement also showed that Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, who is under indictment for refusing to tell the Teapot committee what he knows of the Continental Trading company deal, contributed $1,000 to the national committee in 1920.

Checking up the $36,000 credit to Mr. Patten on the Hodges statement with the list furnished by the former, Senator Walsh noticed an item of $37.85 and one of $5,000 and asked to have Mr. Patten recalled.

"Mr. Patten," said Senator Walsh, "we were furnished a list of Chicago contributors by Mr. Hodges, which checks entirely with the list that you gave us, except for an item of $5,000 and an item for $37.85. That $5,000 is perhaps involved in the checking, but the $37.85 probably went to make up a deficit?"

"Yes," answered Mr. Patten, "they came in and said that still is $37.85 due this bank; at least, I guess that is what happened, and I just went down in my pocket for it and cleaned it up. I just wrote out the check and gave it to him, and I was thankful it was over with."

Q—You really believed that the deficit had been taken care of at that time? A—Yes, with the $37.85.

Q—But two months later, Mr. Patten, you made another contribution of $5,000. A—O, that is for the new campaign.

No Representation Made.
Q—Yes, I understand that. There was no representation made; was that why that was needed? A—No representation was made; that was for this past matter. It was only for current expenses.

Q—It seems rather strange they would come to you for a little item of $37.85. A—Well, I was a soft mark.

Q—You had an idea that Mr. Uphaus had taken ways? A—He had a fine way about him; he was a very agreeable man to me. I liked him, and he got money out of me many times that way. You asked me about contributions to the Democratic party.

Q—That involved the election of state attorney of Chicago? A—Yes, that is for the local election.

Q—In 1920? A—Yes, 1920.

Q—So there is some Democratic money on that list.

Hodges Resumes Stand.
"I find no record of the $160,000 contribution from Sinclair," said Senator Walsh when Mr. Hodges resumed the stand. "It seems quite obvious to me that these records are not complete."

"I have found errors in them," Mr. Hodges admitted.

Sinclair Walsh also remarked the fact that the records did not show a $50,000 contribution of John T. Pratt of New York, who, according to Will H. Hays, had given that much and allowed Hays to return an equal amount of Sinclair's $260,000 advance to Sinclair.

Pressin asserted that in 1919, Pratt, Senator T. Coleman Du Pont (Rep., N. J.), William Boyce Thompson, and other prominent Republicans bought the American Association of Foreign Language Newspapers, paying $200,000 in cash and Liberty bonds and assuming at the same time to pay $200,000 of the association's outstanding obligations.

"What was the reason for the acquisition?" asked Senator Walsh.

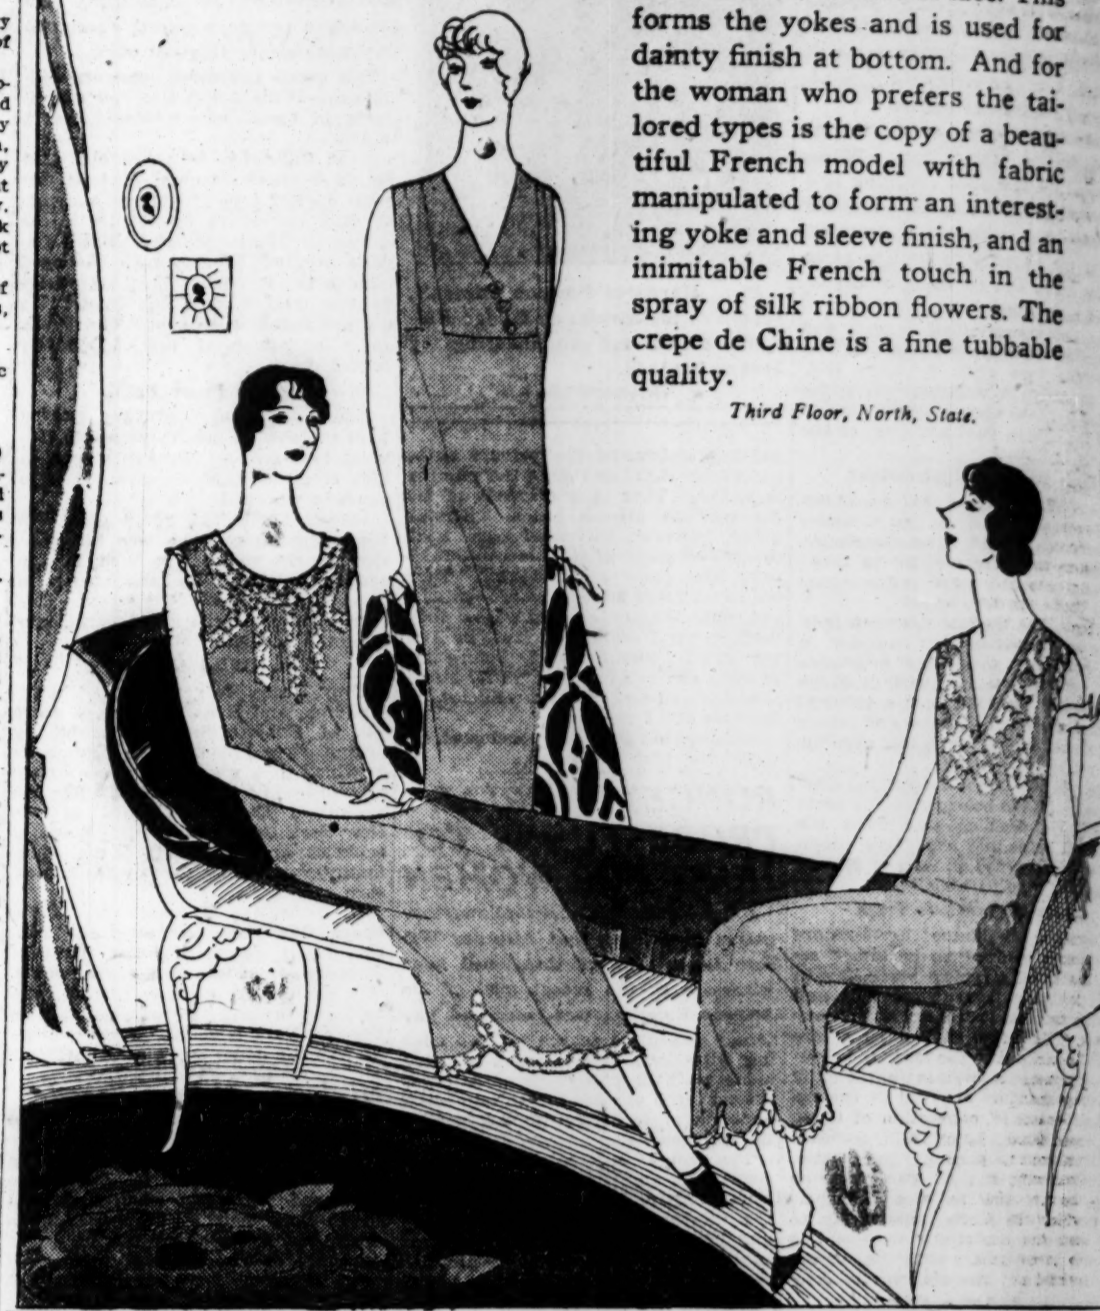

"No one ever knew," declared Pressin, "but it was supposed that they supposed the association had influence over foreign language newspapers. It did not."

Washington, D. C., March 8.—Down came the miners because a new coal strike was called.

That was the most recent in today's coal strike, the interstate commerce secretary of the United States senate, Senator Burton K. Wheeler, president of the Workers of America, said.

"What?" Senator Wheeler asked the Pittsburgh Courier to enter on a policy of "Lewie's" report.

"I can only say what that company told me. Warden, chairman of the Coal company. He was job in 1925 when, according to it, he said to me: 'The company had a year. I would like to record. R. B. It was an amazing Lecher, executive vice president of the Pittsburgh Coal company when he took the stand. Flashed before him on his afternoon testimony a flamboyantly private weekly paper, called the Pittsburgh Courier, of which the company buys 5,000 copies at five cents a copy among its 9,000.

"We buy it," said Lecher, "for free distribution. It contains no repugnant to us."

Sinclair Walsh also read aloud a specimen of "is not repugnant" to Coal company. It was the investigation of the which the United States into the bituminous field to investigate conditions and the strike.

JOHN LEWIS LAYS WAGE SLASH TO OFFICIAL'S WHIM

Says Chairman Sought a
"Good Showing."

BY JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., March 8.—[Special.]—Down came the wages of 12,000 miners because a new chairman of the Pittsburgh Coal company wished to make what he called "a good record." That was the most arresting testimony in today's coal hearing before the interstate commerce committee of the United States senate.

Senator Burton K. Wheeler (Dem., Mont.) brought it out, and John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, gave it under oath.

"What," Senator Wheeler asked, "moved the Pittsburgh Coal company to enter on a policy of wage reduction?"

Lewis replied:

"Good Showing."

"I can only say what an official of that company told me. He is W. G. Warden, chairman of the Pittsburgh Coal company. He was new to that job in 1925 when, soon after his election to it, he said to me:

"The company had a bad year last year. I would like to make a good record. E. B. Mallon (chairman of the senate committee on the coal industry) has had a bad year as chairman. That's another reason for a good record. The thought has occurred to me that I shall make a much better record if I can obtain a wage reduction."

"That was in March, 1925, senator. In the following August this policy of wage reduction began."

Buy Out Newspaper.

It was an amazing tale which C. E. Lecher, executive vice president of the Pittsburgh Coal company, unfolded when he took the stand.

Flaunted before him when he started on his afternoon testimony was a copy of a flamboyantly printed Pittsburgh weekly paper, called the Labor Tribune, of which the Pittsburgh Coal company buys 5,000 copies of every issue at five cents a copy, for circulation among its 3,000 strike breakers in the Pittsburgh mining area.

"We buy it," said Vice President Lecher, "for free distribution among our men. It contains news that is not repugnant to us."

Senator Wheeler seized the paper and read aloud a specimen of the news that "is not repugnant" to the Pittsburgh Coal company. It was an account of the investigations of the subcommittee which the United States senate sent into the bituminous fields last month to investigate conditions among the miners and the strikebreaking miners.

Ridicules Committee.

The senatorial mission was described as a "circus," a "hippodrome," and a "politic stunt." The conduct of the investigations was ridiculed and their motives belittled.

Suddenly pausing, the senator said to the coal official:

"You circulated this paper—I will not dignify it with the word newspaper—because you wanted to discredit a constant reader of this paper, have you not?"

Didn't Read Paper.

Vice President Lecher (lightly)—"No. I got tired of reading it."

He was asked why his company had paid out thousands of dollars to Pittsburgh daily newspapers, for advertisements in which the subcommittee was denounced as "prejudiced," advertisements in which the subcommittee was denounced as "prejudiced."

"Our customers and friends," said Vice President Lecher, "wanted to know why we had sat back so long and said nothing in our own defense."

Another of Mr. Lecher's contributions was this statement:

"There was a general feeling in the Pittsburgh district that, owing to political pressure, the Jacksonville agreement was forced on the coal operators in 1924 in order to avoid a strike in the year of a presidential election."

Secretary of Commerce Hoover and Secretary of Labor Davis, it was brought out, were believed to have exercised this pressure.

Senator Wheeler read a letter written to a friend in Kansas by J. H. Dunlap of the operators' coal and iron police, in which Mr. Dunlap said, "I get $140 a month, and you punch men around here like loading cattle out in Kansas."

COUZENS' PLAN TO MAKE FARMING PAY IS FAILURE

Detroit, Mich., March 8.—[Special.]—Senator James Couzens' Wabek farm of 900 acres will reassert on May 1 to its status of two years ago—a problem in farming finance.

At that time Mark N. and Frank H. Williamson, who took over the farm in September, 1926, rent and tax free, will be ready to move off, and Senator Couzens will start anew with the problem of making a 900 acre farm, with buildings and equipment which cost not less than $100,000, prove the possibility of profitable farming in Michigan.

Prior to the tenancy of the Williamsons, Senator Couzens had conducted the farm with hired superintendents and farm hands. A herd of blooded dairy stock was the chief source of revenue. But with the salaried help on the place, the returns from the farm were written up in red ink.

The senator announced his intention to turn over the farm rent and tax free to the best qualified applicants, giving them the entire profit from the operation of the farm, the tenants to supply their own stock. Out of more than 1,000 applicants the Williamsons were the lucky ones.

VIEW MCGURN ATTACK AS PART OF GAMING WAR

Police Link Him to Capone Activities.

The shooting of Jack McGurn in a shoe shop in the McCormick hotel building at Ontario and Rush streets on Wednesday is believed by the police to have been an incident in the warfare of rival gambling syndicates for control of the lucrative gaming privileges on the north side.

To the same syndicate investigators have ascribed recent bombings at the homes of Municipal Judge John Sharkey and Lawrence Cuneo, secretary and brother-in-law of State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe, and in the gambling house of Louis Barzotti, 238 North Clark street.

McGurn, regarded as one of the most courageous of the lieutenants of Alphonse Capone, the underworld chieftain, was said to have been until recently the manager of the games in Barzotti's place.

Bombs Interrupt Success.

As a combination of bookkeeper, humor and guard he was a success. He was the house until its prosperity was interrupted by a bomb.

That bombing was followed by one at the apartment building where Mr. Cuneo lives. That was attributed to the Barzotti-McGurn element.

Next came a raid on Frank Pope's place, 2711 North Clark street. The police line of reasoning holds that friends of Pope felt that the Cuneo bombing and the Pope raid were instigated by the other gambling chiefs, particularly McGurn. What more natural to them than that the "big gun," as McGurn was quaintly dubbed, should be eliminated?

McGurn Has Strong Friends.

McGurn, it is known, still has the powerful allies who aided Capone in his rise. Barzotti himself only was a restaurant keeper, devoted to the culinary arts. The story is that McGurn was put in to handle the gambling.

McGurn, under treatment in the Alvan Brothers hospital for wounds in the chest and the arms, admits that he knows who shot him, but won't tell the police. He announced that he had been shot before and that he would take care of his affairs as soon as he gets out again.

The police have charged him with vagrancy and disorderly conduct. No effort to furnish bonds has been made, however.

The explanation is that he is safe as long as two policemen watch at his bedside, while guards would have to be hired for him if he was bailed out. Meanwhile, Al Capone was reported enjoying the genial climate of Florida. He was seen at a fight in Miami on Wednesday and made himself conspicuous by tossing $50 bills to the boxers.

HUNT POISON IN MRS. DICKINSON'S BODY; DELAY QUIZ

Coroner's Chemist William D. McNally yesterday began making a series of tests to determine if there is any poison in the organs of the late Mrs. Mary Alice Dickinson. An inquiry by the coroner and the state's attorney into circumstances surrounding Mrs. Dickinson's death last Jan. 4 was continued until the chemist's report is completed.

Dr. McNally will make tests for the presence of arsenic, mercury, bismuth, antimony, alkaloidal poisons such as morphine and strychnine, and the hypnotic drugs such as veronal, allonal, and sulphonal. It will be a week before he will be able to make a statement, he said.

Mrs. Dickinson left most of her $100,000 estate to two nieces and other relatives sought an investigation, making numerous charges concerning the making of the will and the manner in which the aged woman died.

SMITH OPENS NEW DRIVE; SENATE VS. ILLINOIS, HE SAYS

Twice Rejected, He Asks to Be Elected Again.

Bloomington, Ill., March 8.—[Special.]—In his first speech in his new campaign, Frank L. Smith, who three times has held credentials as United States senator from Illinois and now is seeking that office again, told a mass meeting here tonight that if he is nominated in April and elected in November, the senate will be compelled to open its doors to him.

He discussed this point at some length in answer to the contention of Otis F. Glenn, former state senator and his opponent on the Lowden-Deneen ticket, that another election of a man twice rejected as Smith has been won by the people and would leave Illinois without its full representation in congress.

In addition, Mr. Smith argued that Illinois should support him as a part of a fight for its own right to name its two senators in conformity with the constitution.

He said the effort to question whether I will be seated if re-elected, he declared, "is a smoke screen to cloud the real issue in this campaign. That real issue is the right of the people of this state to choose me, or to choose my opponent, or to choose any one else they please to be a senator for Illinois, unrestricted by a superior right of the senate to ratify or reject that choice by a majority vote."

"This real issue was raised by a majority of the senate and not by my opponent. It is an issue between a majority of the senate and the people of Illinois and not one between my opponent and myself."

"Of course he may respond the side taken by Senator Reed of Missouri and Senator Heflin of Alabama if he sees fit to do so."

Says He'll Be Seated.

"I am in this campaign to give you the opportunity to demand the redress of your grievance and for no other purpose. If I were not in the campaign you would be compelled to accept the senate's dictum that it has the right—upon any grounds or no grounds, as it sees fit—to accept or reject whomever you may elect as senator."

WOMAN, GUILTY OF ENCOURAGING SON TO STEAL, PUT IN CELL

Into the long white room, cell lined to its high ceiling, that is designated as the women's quarters at the Bridgeport House, came Mrs. Susan Miller yesterday afternoon. She was sentenced there for ten days on the charge of encouraging her 14 year old son, Chester, and his playmate, Walter Beyen, 13, to steal for her. Mrs. Miller was also fined $10 and costs. The boys were sent to the juvenile home.

Mrs. Miller, who lives at 1374 East 55th street, is 37 years old, and extremely talkative. She said that the clothes, the beads, and shoes which the children brought to her house and which had been taken from private homes, she thought all along were coming from the eleven boy's mother. The lad, Mrs. Miller said, told her his mother was wealthy.

For whether you agreed with the senate or didn't.

"My candidacy gives you the right to assert the inherent fundamental right of statehood guaranteed by the constitution, which right is to elect whomever you please to the senate."

My opponent's candidacy gives you the right to signify your consent to the abandonment of that right if such is your desire.

"If you vote for me you will say to the senate: 'Frank L. Smith must be seated because he is our choice for senator and we have the right to choose.'"

"The answer to the question whether 'If I am elected again, will I be seated?' is without qualification that I will be."

HUSBAND SHOTS ESTRANGED WIFE; TAKES OWN LIFE

Mrs. Elizabeth Clemens, 35 years old, 2328 Clifton avenue, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded yesterday by her husband, Peter, who immediately ended his own life with the gun.

Mrs. Sebastian Gerich, a friend of Mrs. Clemens, who resides at the Clifton avenue address, told police that Clemens became estranged from his wife six weeks ago and shot her because she refused to return to him.

Clemens appeared unexpectedly at the Gerich home, where Mrs. Clemens and Frank, the 6 months' old son of the couple, had been living. Closing the door to the kitchen, where Mr. and Mrs. Gerich were sitting, Clemens drew a revolver and shot his wife twice through the body.

Hurrying into a nearby alley, Clemens shot himself.

NELSON, CUSTER DODGE ISSUE OF BACKING SMALL

Candidates, Here, Refuse to Bare Alignments.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Omer N. Custer, candidate for the Republican nomination for state treasurer, and State Auditor Oscar Nelson, seeking renomination, refused yesterday, to state publicly whether they are for the Thompson-Small-Smith state slate or the Emerson-Carlstrom-Glenn ticket.

Both candidates were in the city, Auditor Nelson visiting his Chicago office, and Mr. Custer returning from Gulfport, Miss., for a conference with Frank O. Lowden, whose presidential candidacy in Illinois he is handling.

Opposed Small in Past.

Following their indorsement by the Thompson-Crowe-Galpin county organization last Monday, telegrams were sent to both Nelson and Custer asking whether this approval—reported to have followed an agreement between Thompson and Small that their ticket would include both of them—meant that they were supporting the Small-

Smith ticket and if not what candidates for state offices and the senate they were backing.

Neither of the candidates has any opposition considered of importance in the primary. Neither has been a supporter of Small in the past. The political theory is that each is looking forward to the governorship race four years hence and because of that is willing to face next fall a Democratic charge that they accepted the indorsements of the Thompson-Small combine which listed them as part of its state ticket.

Urges a Housecleaning.

This condition of reticence became manifest simultaneously with the appearance of an article in the Christian Century, an undenominational weekly, urging Republican voters to unite for "the best opportunity for a political housecleaning which Illinois has seen in many a year."

The voters, said this journal, "will have a chance by casting a single ballot to bring to an end the political careers of a whole group of men whose names have become synonymous with bad government and to place in nomination other men who give promise of distinctly better things."

Recalls $500,000 Refund.

"They know Len Small, the governor, who turned more than $500,000 back into the state treasury last year with the understanding that the state would thereupon drop the suit under which the courts had ruled that he must make good a million which had fallen into his hands during his term as state treasurer," the article continued.

"They know Frank L. Smith, who, as chairman of the commission set to regulate the public utilities of the state, milked the owners of those utilities for the huge campaign fund which carried him to the door of the United States senate—but no farther.

Calls Thompson Notorious.

"They know Robert E. Crowe, whose years as state's attorney of Cook county are ending in a nightmare of gang warfare which has no parallel."

"The only notorious figure in Illinois politics who is not running in this primary is Big Bill Thompson, Chicago's hippodrome mayor, and the defeat of Thompson's allies will reduce him to comparative impotence."

The writer praised the candidacies of Louis L. Emmerson, Otis F. Glenn, and Judge John A. Swanson, and continued:

"If such Republicans in Illinois as have a sense of civic responsibility are awakened in time to the chance which the April primaries offer, the old Small-Smith-Crowe-Thompson crew is wrecked. That precious outfit knows it. It is already panic stricken. . . . There is no question about the state of public sentiment. . . . Once the decent voters reach the polls the fate of those men who have debauched the state will be sealed."

Maj. Paul Schioler Is Named City Bridge Chief (Picture on back page.)

Appointment of Maj. Paul Schioler, a Canadian war veteran, as city engineer in charge of bridges, was announced yesterday by Commissioner of Public Works Richard W. Wolfe. The appointment was approved by Mayor Thompson. Maj. Schioler will work in conjunction with Thomas Pihlfield, former bridge engineer, who is to be retained as consultant engineer. Mr. Pihlfield will supervise the river straightening project, Mr. Wolfe said.

COOLIDGE ASKED HIS VIEWS ON MAYOR'S "DRAFT"

Attorney Edgar J. Cook, candidate for national delegate in the Tenth Congressional district, wrote to President Coolidge yesterday asking for enlightenment on the official attitude toward Mayor Thompson's "draft Coolidge" slogan.

"My purpose in writing to you," he wrote, "is to learn whether you have changed your position. I have taken your word in this regard as I have taken your word on all questions of national importance.

"I am compelled to appeal to you for truth and enlightenment. I therefore would be pleased to learn from you whether you can be urged to change the course you have taken in relation to a third term."

JUDGE SWANSON CHARGES CROWE IS UNFIT FOR JOB

Puts Blame for Crime on State's Attorney.

Circuit Judge John A. Swanson, candidate for the Republican nomination for state's attorney against the incumbent, Robert E. Crowe, last night swung into his campaign in earnest with an attack upon his opponent, linking recent bombings with the collapse of law enforcement in Cook county.

"Right now law enforcing officers are in a state of siege," declared Judge Swanson at a 43d ward meeting at 449 West North avenue. "Guards are posted at their homes and they are in constant fear of violence."

"Does any one think that these things are being thrown because of the lawlessness of these officers? We all know, instead, that it is because certain criminal syndicates with whom these officials were formerly allied have been double-crossed and that the bomb war is a war of revenge by these syndicates."

40 Bombs; No One Punished.

"There have been forty bombs thrown in Chicago since November 1927, and no one has paid the penalty for any of these outrages."

Pointing out that his term as judge runs until 1933, the speaker asserted that he had no personal desire to be public prosecutor. He said he felt called upon to seek the office of state's attorney because of an impulse to avenge the county.

"The present state's attorney says he has been successful in fighting crime but the statistics of his own office show that it has increased and is increasing every day," he declared.

"It is an axiom in public life that severity of punishment is always a deterrent of crime. A calm and judicious prosecution of crime brings about a decrease in crime. But if politics is played and arrangements made for the political or financial benefit of someone, then we find a sinister growth in evil doing in our country."

"We have had the odd spectacle of Mr. Crowe standing idly by and refusing to prosecute or let any one prosecute officials accused of fraud in elections. The county judge was forced to charge these officials with contempt of court in order to punish them."

"We ought to have a prosecuting officer with guts enough and strength

COOLIDGE SIGNS BILL AUTHORIZING FOREIGN AIR MAIL SERVICE

Washington, D. C., March 8.—(Special.)—President Coolidge today signed the Kelly bill, authorizing the postmaster general to enter into contracts for the transportation of mails by aircraft to foreign countries and the insular possessions of the United States.

The measure legalizes mail contracts for ten year periods only and stipulates that the rate to be paid for such service shall not exceed $2 per mile. Contracts will be let to the lowest responsible bidder able to perform the service required to the best advantage of the government.

Such rules and regulations as will be necessary to carry out the provisions of the act will be issued by the postmaster general.

and honor enough to prosecute such offenders, not for contempt of court but for contempt of the people of Illinois."

Drive out Organized Crime!

Then the speaker went on to tell how he would keep his promise to decrease crime and drive criminals out of the county.

There are crimes induced by desperate need and crimes of violence committed in the passion of the moment," he said. "We will always have these with us. But the criminal who is in crime as a business is always known to the police. He can be traced and driven out of town."

"But at present the crime syndicates are allied with the politicians in power."

Misses' Coats That Prepare to Travel And Those Which Stay in Town

Both types are charmingly represented in our spring collections. Just to see the superb mixture of the first puts travel into one's head. With badger fur in blue, green, and tan, crepe lined, $85. It is one of many smart travel coats moderately priced. Jungle furs are new for town wear, and we are showing two of them, baby leopard and panther, on this very smart capecoat, fourth, of Brameena cloth. Also with collar of black gallic. In black, middie blue, Omar, and rock sand, $95. Another smart town coat, pictured third, has the new jabot collar of fox. Brameena cloth in black, gray, tan and middie blue, with crepe lining, $125.

The Youthful Ensemble Tailleur, $87.50

Combining attractive features of both the Ensemble and the tailored suit, this charming three-piece, pictured second. The seven-eighths coat and skirt are beautifully tailored of Brameena in navy or black, the coat braid bound. The blouse of a lovely flat crepe is very feminine in feeling. It is an excellent spring value.

MOVE AGAINST SHORT SESSION FACING FAILURE

Needed Two-Thirds Vote
Seems Far Away.

Washington, D. C., March 8.—[Special.]—Defeat of the resolution proposing a constitutional amendment abolishing "lame duck" congresses seemed in prospect tonight after an all day debate in the house.

Leading Republican members of the house, including Representative Tilson [Rep., Conn.], majority leader, Representative Madden [Ill.], chairman of the appropriations committee, and Representative Wood [Ind.], chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee, and Representative W. E. Hull [Ill.] assailed the resolution.

In view of their attitude it seemed unlikely that when the resolution comes to a vote tomorrow it would be able to muster the necessary two-thirds vote. That it may get a majority vote appeared probable, inasmuch as leading Democrats championed the proposal as the radical Republicans and a few of the regulars, such as Representative Burton [Rep., O.], favored it.

In Different Form.

The resolution, in somewhat different form, already has been approved in the senate, where it was sponsored by Senator Norris [Rep., Neb.], leader of the radical bloc. In the form in which the resolution is before the house, it proposes a constitutional amendment advancing the date on which members of congress take office from March 4 to Jan. 4, and the date on which the President and Vice President take office from March 4 to Jan. 24. The house resolution provides that in even numbered years, the session of congress shall end on May 4, the senate resolution having provided for annual sessions of congress with no adjournment date.

Impractical Situation.

Representatives Tilson and Madden both argued that the advancing of the date on which a new congress takes office would create an impractical situation in dealing with the annual appropriation bills. They pointed out that under the proposal, a new president and a new congress would be forced to deal with the annual budget without advance preparation.

"Our experience," said Representative Tilson, "in changing this precious instrument has not been such as to encourage further experiment along this line except for reasons clear and compelling. I do not believe the reasons given for the proposed change are sufficient or convincing, but on the contrary, that when analyzed, they become untenable."

Sanitary Board Authorizes $10,000,000 Building Bonds

A bond issue of $10,000,000 for the purpose of carrying on the construction program was authorized by the trustees of the sanitary district at their meeting yesterday. The money is to be used for the construction of sewers, bridges, and pumping stations and in completing the dredging of the Calumet river. The bonds, which will pay 4 1/2 per cent, will be paid off semi-annually over a period of 20 years.

T. P. O'CONNOR ASKS IRISH-AMERICANS TO FORGET OLD HATREDS

New York, March 8.—[AP.]—An appeal to Irish-Americans to forget the old hatreds between England and Ireland and to work for full cooperation between this country and England to protect the peace of the world, was made tonight by T. P. O'Connor, dean of the House of Commons, at a banquet of the League for Industrial Rights.

"I take issue with many English statesmen who believe the United States should take keener interest in European affairs," Mr. O'Connor said. "I can see where the affairs of the Balkan states and petty arguments based on ancient prejudices fail to interest a people, 4,000 miles away and engaged in taming the prairies. However, the safety of the world depends upon the cooperation between the two greatest nations in the world, and I ask the Irish not to foster the old hatreds which might block cooperation between these two great countries."

"We cannot rely with safety on Germany, France, or Russia to preserve peace, and the only hope for peace in Europe and the world is in close cooperation between England and America."

Stray Bullet Kills Girl After Boys' Street Fight

Gloria Sims, 6-year old colored girl, died in the Chicago hospital last night after being struck by a stray bullet while in her home at 4625 St. Lawrence avenue. Police learned that the bullet was fired from a .38 caliber revolver by one of six colored youths, 15 and 16 years old, three of whom were shooting during a street fight in front of the child's home. Four of the youths were in custody, a fifth was in the Wilson hospital with a bullet in the neck, and the sixth, believed to have fired the fatal shot, was being sought.

Lewistown, Mo., Banks Fail; Frozen Assets Are Blamed

Lewistown, Mo., March 8.—[Special.]—The Lewistown Savings bank and County Exchange bank, both of this city, failed to open their doors this morning. Frozen assets were given as the cause. No information was given out pending arrival of the state bank commissioner.

SUIT AND THEFT OF PAPERS FAN 50TH WARD ROW

Publisher of Anti-Crowe
Organ Made Defendant

Filing of a $100,000 libel suit and the theft of the whole issue—10,000 copies—of a campaign paper caused the political kettle to boil over again yesterday in the feud between Republican factions of the Fifth ward.

R. J. Shanley, publisher of the Chicago Home News, an anti-Crowe organ, copies of which were stolen, and who was a principal witness against the Crowe interests in Municipal Judge Trude's court a few days ago, was the target of the suit. The action was filed by Richard B. Prendergast, the new Crowe committeeman for the Fifth ward.

Alteration Piano Sale

Friday and Saturday
EVERY PIANO MUST BE SOLD AT ONCE TO MAKE ROOM FOR THE CONTRACTORS

Open Every Evening Until 10 During This Sale

THE REASON FOR THIS SALE: The contractors have a contract with us to begin remodeling our building at an early date, but we have a stipulation in the contract that they must give us 48 hours' notice so we can move our pianos out of the building, so you see we are up against a rather hard proposition. It is either to sell the pianos or store them for 60 days, which would be a great expense, as you can readily see. We cannot leave these pianos in the building for they would get full of grit and dirt, and that would damage them. We would rather give the benefit to our customers than sell them at half price after they are damaged.

Brand New French Period
Model Grands

NOTICE—During this sale you can buy a grand piano in such well-known standard makes as Chickering, Steinway, Baldwin, Lindemann & Sons, A. B. Chase, Mendenhall, Poole, Krell, Bradbury, Lester, Estey and many others at prices ranging from $295 up to $595. Some of these are new, some are used and a great many are only shopworn. Every one is a guaranteed bargain.

CROWD ATTENDS RITES FOR BOYS SLAIN BY FATHER

Funeral services for George and Edgar Chisholm, drowned by their father, George Chisholm, in the Indiana Harbor ship canal, were held in East Chicago, Ind., yesterday. Then the bodies were laid side by side in two little graves in Elmwood cemetery at Hammond.

Two thousand persons were at the five undertaking rooms in Indiana Harbor an hour before the funeral. When the cortege moved away it was half a mile long. It included hundreds of school friends of the two boys and the mothers and fathers of the neighborhood who had known them.

Slut Over Charges in Court.

The theft was reported to Robey street police and detectives were trying to get trace of the papers last night.

Mr. Prendergast based his libel action on statements said to have been made by Shanley before Judge Trude. "Nettlehorst Chooses to Run" is the heading in Shanley's paper of an article boosting the campaign committeeman of Louis Nettlehorst, county commissioner.

MRS. COOGAN TO GIVE DEPOSITION IN DIVORCE SUIT

Hollywood, Cal., March 8.—[Special.]—Mrs. Lillian Coogan, mother of "Jackie" Coogan, today was ordered by Superior Judge Willis to give her deposition in the suit of Mrs. Corabel Bernstein, which accuses Mrs. Coogan of alienating the affections of Arthur Bernstein to the extent of $750,000.

Bernstein, who lives in the Coogan house and manages the Coogan finances, also was ordered to give his deposition in Mrs. Bernstein's divorce suit. Mrs. Coogan is named in the divorce action. Bernstein is required to appear before a notary on Monday morning and Mrs. Coogan on Tuesday afternoon.

Demurrers to Mrs. Bernstein's suits against her husband and Mrs. Coogan were served today on Attorney Charles Cradick, representing Mrs. Bernstein.

KING OF BEDOUINS MUFFLES DRUMS OF DESERT WAR

British Troops on Guard in Arab City.

BY JOHN STEELE.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

LONDON, March 8.—(Special.)—The Wahabi tribes are reported to have declared a holy war against the Arabs of Transjordan and Iraq, still in confusion, but it seems apparent that Ibn Saud, king of Arabia and Sultan of Nejd, has not given it his support. British officials are reported to view the situation more calmly.

It is reported that Ibn Saud is going to Mecca from his desert capital of Riyadh. This is taken here as an indication that he is willing to enter a parley with the British, who are reported under the league of nations mandate both of Transjordan and Iraq. It also is reported that raiding parties have captured several villages in Transjordan and cut the overland car route from Baghdad to Damascus.

British Troops Keep Order.
A British force of ten armored cars, an airplane, and a number of transport cars has arrived at Kuwait, 100 miles from Baghdad. Marines and blue-jackets are reported to be keeping order.

No weight is attached to the French report that Ibn Saud is planning to declare a holy war of Islam against the Europeans. It is pointed out that the present disturbances are not directed against Europeans at all, but against the Wahabi tribes, who are regarded as heretics. Ibn Saud, who is the ruler of these tribes, also has a feud with the family of the late King Hussein of Hedjaz, whom he conquered and turned out.

Prisoner of Britain.
At the same time he is cognizant of the power of Great Britain and far more has been Great Britain's prisoner, receiving $60,000 [about $300,000] annually for good behavior and the maintenance of peace among the Arab tribes. This subsidy was stopped when Great Britain allowed him to return to Hedjaz.

WOMAN STRANGLED BY SHAWL.
Kutah, Ill., March 8.—(AP)—Mrs. Lena Sims, 83, was found strangled to death today at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hansen, who apparently slipped or tripped as she was preparing to leave the room and her shawl had caught on a door knob strangle her.

MOTHER ADOPTS BOGUS SON WHOM BOYER SPURNED

Probate Court Gives
Name to Child.

Detroit, Mich., March 8.—(Special.)—"Joseph Boyer," the 4-year-old child whose birth certificate Myron L. Boyer, son of Joseph Boyer, million-dollar head of the Burroughs Adding Machine company, sought to have expunged from the state records on the ground he was not his son, was adopted by Mrs. Boyer today before Judge Dan A. McGuffey in the Oakland County Probate court at Pontiac. The proceedings were unexpected and the child was not in court.

After stating her desire to adopt the boy, who was referred to as Joseph Andrew Boyer Jr., Mrs. Boyer requested that the child's name be changed to Dede Alfred Boyer.

With the petition was filed an affidavit, signed by the child's natural mother, a 23-year-old Windsor, Ont. woman. Her affidavit said that Nov. 9, 1923, four days after the child was born, in the Hotel Dieu hospital at Windsor, she signed an agreement releasing her parental rights to the infant to Mrs. Boyer.

The adoption petition disclosed that the child had been named for Joseph A. Boyer, chairman of the board of directors of the Burroughs Adding Machine company, and father of Myron L. Boyer. Mrs. Boyer has explained that she represented the child as her own in order to meet the father's wish for a son.

As a result of the adoption, Mrs. Boyer now can obtain from the American consul at Windsor a visa for the child, under which he can make legal entry into the United States and become a permanent resident.

U.S. PROTESTS TO EGYPT; RIOTERS HURT AMERICAN

Many Wounded as Police
Battle Students.

CAIRO, Egypt, March 8.—(AP)—The American chargé d'affaires, it is understood, is making representations to the Egyptian government in protest against demonstrations before the American college.

Student disturbances have been prevalent in Cairo, and yesterday students of the Suez Canal School at Assiut attacked the American college, smashing the gates and doing other damage. Dr. Charles P. Russell of Hastings, Neb., the principal, was slightly injured.

Similar scenes were enacted in Kasr el Nil and Madinet Nasr, two of the city's busiest business thoroughfares, where students smashed street lamps and stoned the windows of European shops until the police charged and dispersed the mob, which rapidly reformed in another quarter.

visiting all the schools and intimidating pupils to cause them to strike, proceeded en masse to the city's principal square, where they staged a violent demonstration against a proposal for an agreement to the treaty. They menaced a number of foreign shops and offices, throwing stones and other missiles.

The local commandant ordered the police to disperse the crowds, who resisted and stoned the police. When the police were reinforced by reserves in motor lorries, the mob rushed the police. The police fired three volleys.

Similar, though less violent scenes occurred in Cairo, where large bodies of students formed in several quarters and marched noisily through the streets, shouting against an agreement with Great Britain, until they were dispersed by the police. There were many casualties, notably around the residence of the late Zaghoul Pasha and the headquarters of nationalist organizations, where mobs of several thousands gathered and would not heed the appeals of waft (nationalist) leaders. The police took action and more than thirty persons were injured, many seriously. The police also suffered casualties. One British constable was hurt.

Vote to Put 100 Million for Iowa Roads Before People

Des Moines, Ia., March 8.—(AP)—The senate of the Iowa legislature late today voted, 32 to 17, to submit a bill authorizing issuance of $100,000,000 in state bonds for primary road improvement to a vote of the people at the coming November general election.

FRECKLES

March Brings Out Unsightly
Spots—How to Remove Easily

The woman with tender skin dreads March because it is likely to cover her face with ugly freckles. March sun and winds have a strong tendency to make her freckle.

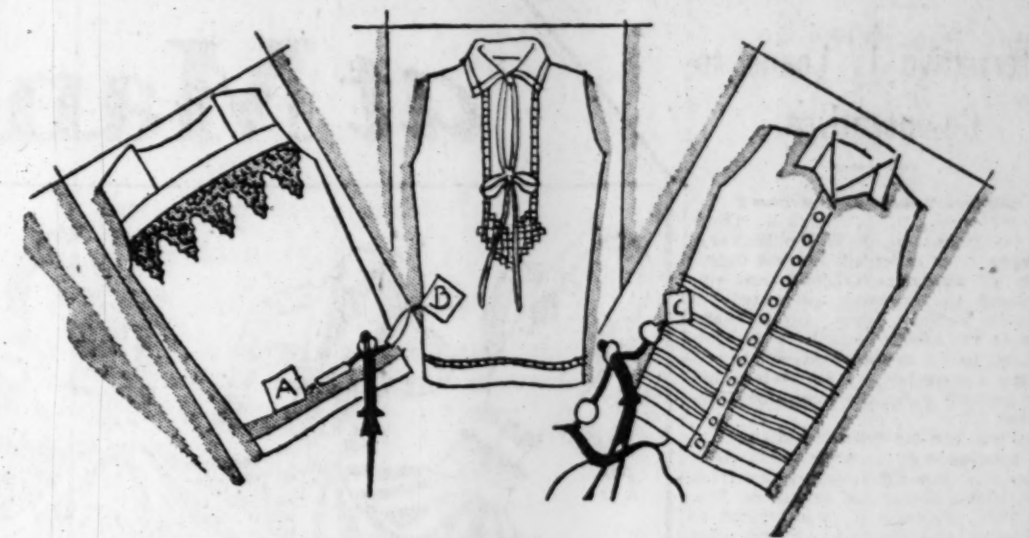

Fortunately for her peace of mind the prescription, Othine—double strength, makes it possible for even those most susceptible to freckles to keep their skin clear and white. No matter how stubborn a case of freckles you have, the double strength Othine should remove them.

Get an ounce from any drug or department store and banish your freckles. Money back if it fails. Othine Lab., Buffalo, N. Y.

WOMAN'S DEATH BY POISON BRINGS ROW AT INQUEST

Her Brother Almost Fights
Estranged Husband.

Circumstances leading to the taking of a fatal poison by Mrs. Ella Kadala, 37, on the front porch of her home at 3359 Green Bay road, Glencoe, on the evening of Feb. 18, suddenly assumed importance yesterday when Deputy Coroner P. J. Flannery continued the inquest so that all possible witnesses might be brought in and a stenographer be present.

Mrs. Kadala died late Wednesday in the Evanston hospital. She was the wife of Stanley Kadala, president of the American Architectural Iron works, and had been estranged from him since last fall when he alleged he found her in an apartment at 3259 North Crawford avenue, with one Harold Hanson, and sued her for divorce.

Sees Children: Takes Poison.

There are five children, Stanley Jr., 1, and two sets of twins, Robert and Edgar, 2, and Earl and Edward, 2. The young woman had come to see the children, whom an injunction forbade her visiting more than twice a week, when she took the poison that after three weeks caused her to die. The inquest started in yesterday to a perfunctory proceeding merely to comply with the law, but when David W. Stearn of 7259 Emerald avenue, Mrs. Kadala's brother, and Lieut. William Heike of the Glencoe police had notified the deputy coroner changed his mind.

"She took the poison, after the door of her home, her children inside, had been slammed in her face," Mr. Stearn had testified.

Calls Kadala Cruel.

"Kadala came home after she had taken the poison and collapsed on the porch. Kadala and his sister, who was with him, stepped around her body and let her lay there, dying for all they knew."

"When the police came, Kadala would not let Lieut. Heike bring her into the house. He said he was afraid she would soil his oriental rug."

Lieut. Heike corroborated this. He said he had insisted and taken the young woman into the house. "It's all lies," Kadala cried to Chief of Police Jacob Rudolph of Glencoe. "All lies!" Thereupon Kadala arose from an obscure seat at the inquest, and almost got into a fist fight with Stearn.

"You are a stubborn fool," Stearn shouted to Kadala, "and now you're a murderer on top of it!"

Bakers Turn Attention to Problem of Clerks' Dress

Members of the American Bakers' association, holding their annual convention in the Hotel Sherman, yesterday left their discussions of eggs and flour to consider the important question of what a well dressed bakery clerk ought to wear as she wraps up magnificence and pies. Twelve models, clad in modern togery adapted to the baking industry were brought in for inspection. It was agreed that the appearance of employees was a large factor in gaining and holding trade.

PERU GOOD WILL FOR YANKS WINS U. S. INVESTORS

Sound Financial Footing Insures Safety.

BY JOHN CLAYTON.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
LIMA, Peru, March 8.—The traditional friendship of Peru and the United States has endured unbroken for more than a century. From the time the United States recognized the independence of Peru, after the victories of Gen. O'Higgins, Lord Cochran and Gen. San Martín at Callao, until the present day no dispute has arisen to interfere with amicable relations.

When I called on President Leguia for a second time to present him a copy of the interview he had granted me, I thanked him for the cordial expressions of good will contained in his words.

"You can rest assured," he said, "that my respect and admiration for your nation is profound. What I have said comes from the bottom of my heart. My policy is based on this feeling, and I do not believe the future will prove it to have been mistaken."

Dr. Leguia's words express the attitude of the great majority of Peruvians toward our country. The catchword, "American Imperialism," has found no place in the Peruvian press or among Peruvian public men. Members of the opposition have tried to make common cause with enemies of the United States in other countries, but their attempts have found no response in Peruvian public opinion.

Interests U. S. Capital.

This friendly attitude on the part of the government has had a great deal to do with the interest taken by American financiers in Peruvian development, and it is more than probable that this field will be one of the most attractive in South America for the investment of American capital. Another very important factor in this attraction has been the same financial condition of the nation during the Leguia regime. A budget system was long ago introduced in Peru, and in 1922 a new budget law brought it up to date. The expenditures and receipts have been maintained in a condition approximating balance throughout the administration, any surplus being applied to useful public works or the decrease in the income budget for the following year. For this reason American financiers do not hesitate to recommend Peruvian issues for public works and other purposes to the American public.

There has been a good deal of criticism of the most recent Peruvian loan of $50,000,000, particularly of the five per cent "bankers' spread" in connection with its financing. But it has made possible refinancing of a number of issues at decreased rates of interest, reducing the service charges on such loans, and the balance of the money obtained from the bond issue has gone into useful public improvements.

Irrigate 200,000 Acres.

The "Imperial Pampas" project south of Lima brought $0,000 hectares, or about 200,000 acres, under irrigation at a cost of $2,000,000. The lands were purchased from their owners at a price of $40 per hectare for the unirrigated areas. They were sold to small farmers and colonists in tracts of five and forty hectares for about $300 the hectare, on payments of $12 per year over a period of twenty-five years, without interest. The lands were all taken up within the first twenty-four hours and more than 2,000 applicants were disappointed. The gross return on the down payments was $960,000, or approximately half the cost of the project. After the second year of ownership, colonists will pay eighty cents per hectare for water dues, which will bring a net operating income for the project of $44,000 a year. The net profit, on a basis of cash values of the annuities at six per cent, less cost of plant and land, was more than $7,000,000.

GERMANY FINDS AGFHAN KING WAS EXPENSIVE GUEST

BERLIN, March 8.—Now that the cost is being counted of entertaining Amanullah Khan, king of Afghanistan, and his party, it has been found by the newspaper Achur Abendblatt that the Afghan monarch has been a somewhat expensive guest to Germany.

The paper figures the total bill for these guests during their fortnight's sojourn at approximately 1,000,000 marks ($250,000), of which 185,000 marks ($46,250) was the value of the airplane presented to the king by the government. Other gifts showered on Amanullah Khan by German industrialists—with an eye on future orders—are valued at about $100,000.

On the credit side stands the queen's purchase of twenty dresses and seventy pairs of shoes, and the king's order for a great quantity of liveries, such as are worn by the Albrecht palace functionaries, and a complete electrical outfit for his palace. Amanullah intended to buy furniture, but the dealers insisted on cash—and no business was done on this score.

FASCISTI DEMAND POPE SHOW HIS STAND ON TYROL

Charge Papal Secretary Favors Germans.

BY DAVID DARRAH.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

(Copyright: 1928: By The Chicago Tribune.)

ROME, March 8.—Last week's friction between Austria and Italy over the German minorities in south Tyrol is throwing the none too cordial relations between the Vatican and Fascist government into a state of high tension. Violent press attacks are being launched against Cardinal Gasparri, papal secretary of state, who is accused of outright hostility to Fascism and of being sympathetic toward the Germans. The ultra-Fascist organ, Il Tevere, alleges that Cardinal Gasparri is showing bitter feeling toward fascism in his private conversations and has induced the pope to share his views. The cardinal is quoted as saying: "Fascism harbors a gang of outlaws and robbers," and that the end of the Fascist regime is near. Osservatore Romano, the Vatican organ, replies that Il Tevere's statement is a mass of lies.

Attacked by Farinacci.

Another violent attack against Cardinal Gasparri appears tonight directed by the former secretary of the Fascist party, Roberto Farinacci. Sig. Farinacci's headline asks: "Cardinal Gasparri, did Priest Selpel speak the truth, or did he lie?"

The article demands that Cardinal Gasparri reply immediately through Osservatore Romano as to whether the Vatican is for Premier Mussolini in his south Tyrol policies or against him.

"In times of extreme responsibility such silence [referring to that of the Vatican] can be interpreted as a sign of enmity against the country," he says. "Absolute silence is a well known political method of the Vatican. We thought the Vatican organ and its inspirer would express its indignation against the insults launched at Italy by the Austrian and German press."

Assaults Vatican for Silence.

"We were mistaken in this, as we were when we thought that the Vatican organ would repudiate the charges made in the German Catholic organ Germania, or at least say that Germania was not speaking in the name of the Vatican. But Osservatore Romano has not found a word to say about this either."

Sig. Farinacci concludes: "The time has come for the Vatican to say whether Italy is right in remaining in south Tyrol. The time has come for the papal secretary of state to say whether he is for us or against us and to give evidence of his sincerity and loyalty."

POPE TO RENEW PLEA FOR AID TO MEXICO CHURCH

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

ROME, March 8.—Pope Pius soon will renew his appeal to civilized countries for intervention in favor of Mexican Catholics and priests alleged to be persecuted by the Calles government, according to Giornale d'Italia tonight. The newspaper says that Vatican advice from Mexico show the Catholic situation there is growing worse, although definite news about the trials of priests has not yet reached Rome. In Vatican circles, according to the paper, it is pointed out that the recent protest meeting held in Edinburgh against Mexican persecutions was attended by Protestants and even noted Masons, as well as Catholics.

VENEZUELA MOBS RIOT AGAINST U.S. NICARAGUA ACTS

Many Slain by Troops,
Travelers Say.

BOGOTA, Colombia, March 8.—(U.P.)—First details of recent disorders in Caracas, capital of Venezuela, were brought to Colombia today by commercial travelers who crossed the Venezuelan border at Cucuta.

United States action in Nicaragua and against the possibility that Venezuela might lose its rich oil lands at Maracaibo to foreign concerns caused the disorders, the travelers said.

There were many casualties. Six policemen were said to have been lynched by students in retaliation for the police action in shooting into a crowd of rioting students, many of whom were said to have been killed or wounded. The remainder were taken to the undersea level dungeons at Porto Cabello.

Use Machine Guns on Crowds.
The travelers said "army and police forces under Eustaquio Gomez, the president's brother, dispersed popular meetings by using machine guns."

"The French minister," according to the travelers' unconfirmed (by official sources) accounts, "who attempted to mediate and prevent bloodshed, was ordered to leave the country."

Strikers laid siege on the semi-official newspaper El Universal and prevented its publication. In order to prevent traffic of officials' automobiles students put nails on the highway.

The Cucuta correspondent of El Tiempo also interviewed travelers who arrived at the Colombian-Venezuelan border town today. The trouble started, El Tiempo quoted travelers as saying, when more than 400 students paraded, singing the "Marseillaise" and shouting "Down with the tyrant Gomez (the president)."

Diplomats Are Wounded.
El Tiempo's reports said several prominent citizens were killed and that the Chilean minister and the secretary of the Cuban legation were slightly wounded.

Twenty-five prominent lawyers were among many people arrested in connection with the disorders, the newspaper said, and a number of employees at the Bank of Venezuela were sentenced to terms of imprisonment at hard labor. A drastic censorship has been imposed in Venezuela.

KILLED WHEN CAR OVERTURNED.
Plymouth, Ind., March 8.—(Special.)—Ben W. Anderson, 40, of Rochester, Ind., was instantly killed when his roadster, which he was driving, slipped off a bridge over a creek and overturned.

The car was traveling south on the highway when it slipped off the bridge. Anderson's neck was broken when the car turned over.

QUEBEC PREPARES GALLOWS FOR DORIS McDONALD

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
MONTREAL, Que., March 8.—(U.P.)—Impotent from lack of funds and handicapped also by the belief that any American aggressiveness will bring disaster to their cause because of the Quebec public's mental attitude, the leaders of the campaign to save Doris McDonald from the Canadian gallows were stumbling today while Quebec officials went ahead with their preparations to hang the 20-year-old American girl a fortnight hence.

Tomorrow morning High Sheriff Domine Crepin of Beauport will arrive in Montreal to make arrangements for the transportation to Valleyfield of the ancient and weather-beaten mobile gallows of Canada. Its double trap is scheduled on March 23 to take the lives of the dapper bride of Mount Vernon and her husband, George.

On this gallows, the same one on which the dominion hanged its last woman murderer twenty-nine years ago, the American couple have been sentenced to pay for the murder, last July, of the French Canadian taxi driver of Lachine, Adolphe Bouchard.

Arthur Ellis, the dominion hangman, is already at Valleyfield.

STATE ASKS 2D DEATH PENALTY FOR HICKMAN

Los Angeles, Cal., March 8.—(Special.)—Edward Hickman's mother and brother sat inside the counsel railing in Judge Elliot Craig's courtroom today and heard the state demand a second death penalty for the youth.

Hickman is jointly accused with Wilby Hunt of slaying C. I. Thomas during a holdup, but the prosecution demanded life imprisonment in Hunt's case, since the law of California rules Hunt, aged 16, is too young for hanging. The case will go to the jury of six women and six men tomorrow.

Governor Signs Virginia's New Anti-Lynching Bill

Richmond, Va., March 8.—(U.P.)—Gov. Byrd today signed the anti-lynching bill passed by the general assembly.

The bill makes lynching a state offense and provides that a participant in a lynching may be prosecuted for murder.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.
Champions in the eight classes of the Thompson's golden gloves amateur boxing tournament will be crowned at the Ashland Auditorium tonight.

The winners of tonight's bouts will meet the best amateurs in New York in the inter-city tournament to be held at the Coliseum on the night of March 24. The runners-up or those who win second place will also take part in battle with New York. They will be pitted against the second place winners of the New York meet, the finals of which will be held in Madison Square Garden March 17.

Contestants in tonight's finals are the best amateur boxers in the middle west. Among them are three fighters from the University of Notre Dame, and one from the University of Illinois. Others are from Milwaukee, Harvey, Ill., and Deerpfield, Ill. The remainder of the contestants who are expected to eliminate some of the out of town entrants in the final contests.

$700 See Bout.
Last night's bouts attracted the largest crowd of the event. The estimated attendance was 3,700 and the receipts about $1,500. Despite the rain, which started early in the evening, the crowd in the wool fans started to arrive early and long before the contestants entered the ring for the first fight, nearly every seat was occupied. There were a few vacant chairs in the back of the balcony. It was also the most enthusiastic crowd of the great festival.
Tonight each fighter will have his own delegation in the building. There will be others who have adopted favorites since the opening of the tourney last Monday and it is a certainty no contestant will lack for support when he starts fighting for the Golden Gloves and the honor to represent Chicago in the meet with New York.
As a result of last night's competition, four fighters remain in each class. If there are no forfeits, twenty-two battles will be fought tonight. Owing to a disappointment expressed by some of the fighters who will not get a chance to battle for first place, three places, some divisions may go by default.

Chase Battles Juhand.
In the 112 pound division, Jimmy Chase of the Belle Plaine, A. C. and Robert Juhand of Deerpfield, Ill., will meet for first place. Each has won all his fights and a keen struggle should result. Caesar Degrad of the Filippino club and Joe Wolf of the Albany Park A. C. will be the contestants for third place.
John C. Burns of the University of Notre Dame, competing in the 125 pound division, will be the challenger of the unbeaten fighter, and Joe Bonak, another unattached performer, will be the contestants for honors in the bantamweight class. Burns is a clever fighter and Bonak a hard puncher with his left hand. J. S. Perry, unattached and Harry Alberts of Mullen's will contest for third place.
In the 135 pound division, George Root of the Edmille Health club and John Preece of the University of Notre Dame, who is entered unattached, will meet for the golden gloves. Billy Hulse of the Jones A. C. and John Burke, unattached, will clash for third place.

Look for Stinging Match.
Joe Keastan of Mulling's and Whitey Bush of the Al J. Horan playground will meet in the 135 pound class. This should be one of the best fights of the night as both are aggressive and can punch. Keastan is a terrific sucker and Bush must keep away from his right hand. George McCall of Mullen's and Henry Blak of the Garfield Park Training club will be the principals in the bout for third place.
In the middleweight division, Charles Benoit of Mullen's and Tony Bath of Melrose Park will meet for the title. George Rothermel and John Bolt, two unattached fighters, will struggle for third place.

Bob Schuster of the Belle Plaine A. C. and Dave Malar of the Milwaukee A. C. have earned the right to meet for the title in the light heavyweight class, and Jack Raymond of Mark's Queensberry A. C. and Milton Taylor, unattached, will struggle for third place.

SONGS BY DRYS DISTURB PEACE OF YANKEE CAMP

Fresh Water Harmony Not So Good.

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
St. Petersburg, Fla., March 8.—Things have come to a terrible pass when a group of athletes in training for the baseball season must be disturbed at night by the singing of people singing prohibition songs. This has been going on for several days in St. Petersburg, and there is considerable indignation among the New York Yankees.

The difficulty seems to lie in the fact that the southeastern conference of the Anti-Saloon League of America is being held in a large edifice adjoining the Princess Martha hotel in which the Yankees are quartered. According to Mr. Will Murphy, whose hotel is so situated as to bear the brunt of the acoustics of the conference, the singing is just what one would expect fresh water singing to be at 120 a.m.

Sing About Al Smith.
"I hope I will not be misunderstood," Mr. Murphy states. "My motto is 'Live and let live,' and I believe the people in the prohibition business have a right to make a living. But it does seem that the gentlemen in the prohibition industry could choose some spot where they will not give offense to their fellow citizens. I was particularly put out by a song to the tune of the farmer in the dell, which ran: 'We will not vote for Smith; We will not vote for Smith; We will not vote for Smith; We will not vote for Smith.' The situation seems to be serious. Experts on the matter of singing whom I have interviewed agree that it is practically impossible to sing in an intensive manner at half past nine in the morning on fresh water or even on coffee or tea."

Mr. Huggins Speaks.
Mr. Miller Huggins is more tolerant than Mr. Murphy, but then Mr. Huggins owns a dwelling far from the sound of the morning singing and his ears feelings are not injured.
"My boys will not make any protest," Mr. Huggins said. "They can take prohibition or leave it alone. Although all this singing and speaking might have a bad effect on them by reminding them of beer. If running the ball club I find that the surest way to make the boys drink too much is to post a rule in the clubhouse telling them they can't drink anything."
"Once when I was the manager of the St. Louis club, I had a rule that nobody could smoke any cigarettes all season. Then one day when we were playing in New York I saw two of my pitchers coming out of a restaurant smoking cigarettes. When they saw me, each one showed his hand into the other one's hand, leaving them still with one cigarette apiece."
"I said: 'It's a nice day, boys,' and went right out to the ball park and tore down the bulletin forbidding cigarettes."

Peered at Billy Sunday.
"I don't wish to seem to be a bad citizen, but I have noticed that beer and ale are very helpful to ball players in the long strain of the season. It may be unlawful of me to think so and I would hate to have word of it get back to the Southeastern Conference of the Anti-Saloon League of America, but I believe a couple of hard balls in the evening after a hard ball game are a great help, too. You go back to your room and have a couple of beers and forget all about the ball game and you go down to dinner."
Mr. Huggins was much annoyed at the Rev. Billy Sunday today.

As a resident of St. Petersburg and a former realtor in the community, Mr. Huggins took great offense at the declaration of the Rev. Sunday that he would rather own an entire suburban lot there than an entire subdivision in Florida.

Sunday Does Big Business.
"I was talking to the president of one of our banks about it and he was amazed at the Rev. Sunday, too," said Mr. Huggins. "Mr. Sunday makes good money here in Florida. A few nights ago he was putting on his show in St. Petersburg and he had advertised a fifty cent admission but when the crowd looked better than he had expected he went up to world series prices, $1.50 a head."

East, West Clash Today in Florida Women's Golf Meet

St. Augustine, Fla., March 8.—(Special.)—The "big three" of women's golf in America—the Misses Glenna Collett, Maureen O'Connell, and Virginia Van Wie, as well as another young potential title holder, Miss Virginia Wilson, won their matches today in the quarter finals of the Florida east coast championship tournament here.

These four will battle for the title and the Mrs. W. R. Kenan Jr. trophy, on which each of the "big three" holds one leg. Miss Collett and Miss O'Connell are from the metropolitan sector, while both Miss Wilson and Miss Van Wie are from Chicago. Tomorrow Glenna will oppose Miss Wilson, while Maureen, the defending east coast champion, will meet Miss Van Wie.

The second round matches proved easy affairs for all but Miss Van Wie, who was under pressure all the way in her tussle with Mrs. J. La Rocque Anderson of the Cherry Valley club, Garden City, L. I., the former finally winning out on the home hole by two up. This was the third meeting between the two stars, but it marked the first victory for Miss Van Wie over her most experienced opponent.

Canadiens Win from Rangers; Score, 4 to 3
MONTREAL, Que., March 8.—(AP)—Flashing their early season stride, the Montreal Canadiens tonight triumphed over the New York Rangers by 4 to 3. It was the second defeat on Montreal ice within three days for the Rangers and sealed their chances of finishing on top of the heap in the American group of the National Hockey League.

MAPLES LEAFS WIN, 4-2
TORONTO, Ont., March 8.—(AP)—The Toronto Maple Leafs came out on the long end of a 4 to 2 count in their National league hockey clash here tonight. Sensational stops by Forbes, the visiting goalkeeper, prevented heavier scoring by the Leafs.

WELNET YIELDS FIRST RUN.
He pitched just as if it was the afternoon of April 11, and when the Cubs were concluded, only one hit was posted against his record. He also fanned three, among them Hack Wilson.

Error Helps Goofs.
Had not his support betrayed him, Carlson might have gone through the fifth chapter undamaged. But something of an unsavory nature was due him, because he had too much luck getting through the fourth successfully. The opening item in the fifth was a single lined to right by Weibert. English forced him. Heathcote followed with an easy grounder toward Maguire, who let the pill trickle through, and by the time it was recovered English was on third and Heathcote on second.

Next on the list was Joe Kelly, who can hit a ball oftener than many athletes with better reputations. Hatless Joe batted the ball over short for a single, sending English home. While the ball was being returned, Kelly thought he'd try to reach second and Heathcote kept going on after reaching third. In the confusion Heathcote was run down by Gonzales, but the latter then pegged the ball to Butler at third, Kelly scoring.

SPIKES HIS TEAM'S BIG GUNS

Charley Root, ace of the Cubs' pitching staff last year, made his 1928 debut in impressive style yesterday in a training camp game. Root batted for three innings for the Goofs, holding the Cub regulars to one hit and fanning three, including Hack Wilson.

In the Wake of the News

TRIP NEARS END.
AVANA, Cuba.—(Friend Don!) Well, the corpus delicti, or whatever it is, will be taken by steamer to New Orleans tomorrow. About the most pleasing happening of the afternoon was the season's initial appearance on the rubber of Charlie Root, the workhorse of 1927. He was handed the opening assignment for the Goofs and he promptly went to work to convince the opposing hitters that all was well with the Root army.

Attended jail all the other night and it's certainly worth seeing. They tell us here those players in Chicago are just students and after seeing the game here I think they were correspondence school students. There's betting after each point here with official bookies registering the bets. Near as I could tell, the mutuals in advance and the old bank roll which showed voluptuous amplitude last Sunday is now emaciated and decrepit.

One of my misfortunes was to meet Moose Shapiro at the track. He tried to be helpful and gave me two horses which could not lose. They did. One was 1 to 2 to win and ran outside the money. The other was the once $20,000 Derby candidate, Chittagong, now entered in a claiming race to be sold for $300. You know what a slow beginner he is. Well, he ran a nice race against the other land crabs and came like a streak through the stretch and would have won in another stride, but there wasn't any other stride and they don't pay off on that.

SCHALK SEES SOX FACE FIRE FOR 1ST TIME TODAY

College Rookie Is Given Release.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Shreveport, La., March 8.—Just to illustrate how low the pulse of a baseball spring training camp can become on a rainy day, it is set down here that the White Sox manager, Harry Schalk, has been in the house and will rattle tonight at the Louisiana state fair grounds for the championship or something or other.

This thrilling circumstance was not tempered even by a series of announcements ground out by Secretary Harry Grabner relative to the Comiskey herd of wandering athletes who forgot that March 6 was the "absolute deadline" for late arrivals at the training camp here.

Grabner Goes Into Huddle.
Mr. Grabner, after completing a routine of huddles with the telegraph superintendents, the best transient officer in town, Manager Ray Schalk and J. Louis Comiskey, was able to divulge the following:

Bill Hunnefeld and Bill Barrett may reach the training camp tomorrow or Saturday.
Charley Barnabe may reach the training camp Saturday or Sunday.
Johnny Mosti has wired the club that he has decided to join it in Fort Worth, Tex., on March 16, the day on which a three day exhibition series is to be opened there.

Schrump Gets His Liberty.

In addition to advising of the hoped for influx of athletes Mr. Grabner made it known that Henry Schrump, the pride of the Western State Teachers' college at Kalamazoo, Mich., no longer is eating here at the expense of the club and is privileged to do his own thing, wherever he goes.

As this is being written the sky seems to be clearing off a bit for the Sox's first game of their scheduled exhibition series tomorrow afternoon against the Shreveport Sports.

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

BY DON MAXWELL.

Dave Barry attributes to Kid McCoy the most graphic description I've ever heard of a ring.
"The Kid," he remarks, "had a reputation as a goat getter. And one night he tried his power on a swankering fellow matched to meet a young bucko whom the Kid was seconding. A few minutes before the fight, a preliminary on a good card, the Kid slipped over to the cocky young chap and edging in close, began speaking: 'Young fellow,' he murmured, 'in a few minutes you are going to enter the loneliest place in the world. There'll be just one other fellow there with you and he won't be there to do you any good. Nobody's going to be there to help you when you need it. You'll be all by yourself. Sure, the lights will be bright and there'll be a third man walking around, but he's there to count you out. Sure, there'll be thousands of faces upturned in the glare, but they'll be the faces of folks watching to see you counted out. Good-by, young fellow, you're off for the loneliest place in the world.'"

Dave Barry's story may be fiction, of that I'm not sure. But the point he attributes to Kid McCoy has particular punch in this Golden Gloves tournament which ends tomorrow night.

And the kick it gives you is this: The eight boys who win the golden gloves with the diamond inset will have won because they weren't afraid to fight alone. Some of them may be punks. Some of them may be unletting. Some may never make a name for themselves in the days to come but of this they may feel proud.

They've mastered the fear of the loneliest place in the world.

The more you see of this tournament the more you're impressed with the utility of attempting to tell the folks who weren't there what they missed. Picture a young man, clean cut, clear eyed, who walks out on his corner as lithe as a cat, weathers a wild melee, emerges cool and determined and boxes with the science of a master of ringcraft. Courage and skill. A great hookup that, and it won.

Remember the bout between a blonde haired young man named Jackson and black haired young man named Scully? Equally matched, equally determined, they and three rounds in a draw. Boxing, science, science, and give and take. Faster and harder fighting in the fourth round than there was in the first. Scully got the decision, but Jackson lost no honor. Scully is a former student at the University of Illinois; Jackson is practicing dentistry. They box for the fun of it. Sport with dynamite thrown in. Remember the bout between Tony Batho and a young man named Cobb? Batho, sturdy built, likes to trade punches. Cobb, an expert of the left. He stuck that left into Batho's head with the precision of a piston. But Batho did the most shocking and he won. Piston and tripod, sockwork. And so was his foe.

And the four rounds between two midsets, one a little old man and the other an old little boy. Flyweights and boxers of class. And the old little boy, who spends his summers caddy-ing out at Briargate, won.

It's no use. You can't describe it. But you'll feel it and see it, and talk about it tonight—if you're there.

ENGLISH RUNNER
LEADS IN COAST TO COAST RACE
Mojava Wells, Cal., March 8.—(AP)—The blistering sun and chill winds of the Mojava desert were surrounded with ease today by 44 year old Arthur Newton, 100 mile running champion of England, to win the fifth lap of 21 miles in the coast to coast marathon in 4 hours and 48 minutes.

His successful battle with wind and sun also put the slinky runner in first place for total elapsed time in covering the 165 miles rolled off in the five days.

third place. Maier has made a good impression during the tourney.

Check McGrath of the University of Notre Dame and Walter J. Radke of Bloomington, Ill., will be the principals in the final bout of the heavy weight division. Rudy Stratta of the Berkman A. C. and John Lahti of the Fiske A. C. will clash for third place.

The finalists in the 147 pound division are Nick Focco of Mullen's, C. R. McMahon of Danville, Ill.; J. C. Seilly of the University of Illinois, and Billy Bennett of the Belle Plaine A. C. They will draw against each other and the winners of the two bouts will meet for first place.

John Scully of the University of Illinois had to go an extra round to defeat Milton Jackson in one of the most interesting fights on last night's program. Scully won the verdict in the extra round by forcing and landing the extra round punches. They met in the 147 pound class.

Extra Round Battle.

Robert Jahrend of Deerfield had to extend himself to win the verdict over Joe Wolf of the Albany Park A. C. in an extra round in the 112 pound class. Robert has put up good exhibitions throughout the tourney and his battle with Jimmy Chase of the Belle Plaine A. C. for the title should be among the best of the tournament.

Joe Bosak, unattached, went into an extra round to take the decision from Harry Albert of the Mullen gymnasium. This fight was the best in the 118 pound class. John Preece of the University of Notre Dame won his way into the final bout by winning an interesting three round decision from A. Regis, unattached.

There were several knockouts, but most of the fights went to the judges. The judges were Emil Thiry, Barney Abel, E. L. Cook, and Dan Devereaux. The referees were Dave Miller and Phil Collins. The timers were S. H. Doe, J. Darvont and Charley Sidle. The judges were Dave Miller and Leonard Sterling did the announcing.

WARNS OF PERIL IN CHANGING RAIL TERMINAL PLANS

BY HARPER LEECH.
Next to the geography which made this town, the student of Chicago who delves into the nature of the industrial and commercial processes which are carried on at the foot of Lake Michigan is apt to reach the conclusion that the other great factor in our prosperity and its future expansion is the mechanism and rates of the Chicago switching district.

Chicago stocks were strong in the morning, most active session yesterday. The activity, however, was confined to a few issues. Consumers common stock, distributing about 23,000 shares to the total outstanding, announced the company would allow monthly participation in a coal program controlled by the Innuell interests. A 5% to 10%, was registered after the stock sold at a new high of $15 7/8. The price advanced to $16 1/2. The points to 18 on reports the company's ahead of last year on orders. Fractional advances were felt by Walgreen warrants, which advanced from $10 to $11. Initial trading was registered in a couple of new issues. Shield Steel opened at 48% and closed at 49%. The company will market $2,000,000 of bonds. Hammer Manufacturing also opened at 48% and closed at 54.

The sound and substantial position of this house today is the result of 44 years of conservatism in the conduct of our business, and conscientious service to customers. It is this policy and the fact that our long experience is being concentrated on a reputation for sound securities and service, rather than for large volume business, that has created confidence in our first mortgage real estate bonds.

Merger of the Peabody Coal company with the coal mining properties of the Insull interests and the formation of a $50,000,000 corporation which may put Samuel Insull into the retail coal business has been put under way.

A call for proxies has been sent to stockholders of the Peabody Coal company and when sufficient have been received a stockholders' meeting will be called and the deal put through, Stuyvesant Peabody, president of the Peabody company, said yesterday.

Mr. Peabody added that details of the financial set-up could not be divulged until after he had received sufficient proxies.

The Consumers company, mentioned in rumors during the last few weeks, will not be directly involved, Mr. Peabody said. Those close to the leaders in the

The Peabody company, together with the estate of the late Francis Peabody, control around 25 per cent of the Consumers company stock which will pass to the control of Mr. Insull and his associates if the merger is completed.

Peabody to Be President.

A five year contract is in effect providing for Peabody management of the Consumers company. Assumption of this contract by the Insull interests is expected as a natural course.

Mr. Peabody is expected to remain in the new corporation as the president. He is also president and chairman of the board of the Consumers company.

INLAND STEEL CO. MERGER GIVEN UP

Consolidation of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube and the Inland Steel companies was abruptly abandoned yesterday. The announcement came as a surprise in financial results, as all plans for the $380,000,000 merger recently were made public and a stockholders' meeting had been called for next week to approve the deal.

The two were unable to agree on certain important features," L. E. Block, chairman of the Inland Steel company, said last night. "The disagreement was over certain involved matters but not concerning the exchange of stock. So it seemed for the best interest of our stockholders not to go through with the merger."

Mr. Block said there is no change in the plan of the Inland company to pay the recently decided 10 per cent stock dividend on March 15 and to retire the preferred stock on April 2.

TALL BUILDING SCHEDULED FOR RUSH-SUPERIOR

BY AL CHASE.

Frederick W. Woodruff yesterday bought the southeast corner of Rush and Superior streets, 26x142, from the Wiley S. McCrea estate for a reported $125,000, thereby rounding out a site for a proposed tall shop or office building, which it is announced the new owner will erect during the year. He already owned the adjoining fifty feet to the south, on Rush street, so he now has seventy-six feet on Rush and 142 feet on Superior.

According to the Bowers Realty company, which negotiated yesterday's purchase, active steps will be taken toward the erection of an attractive building as soon as a tentative tenant for the whole or part is secured. The new building will be just west of and across the alley from the Central Life Insurance company's Michigan avenue building. Robert L. Benson represented the McCrea estate in yesterday's deal.

Only Three Owners in One Block. The block bounded by Michigan, Superior, Rush and Huron is now held by only three owners. Noble Judah owns the balance of the Rush street frontage, all of the Huron street frontage and 164 feet of frontage on the boulevard. The Central Life Insurance company owns the southeast corner of Michigan and Superior, 55x65.

The Rush-Superior corner purchased yesterday by Mr. Woodruff contains old improvements which were considered of no particular value in the transaction. The Bowers Realty company will manage the building Mr. Woodruff contemplates erecting.

West Clark Theater. The West Clark building corporation is erecting a building at the southeast corner of Grand avenue and West street, a block east of Harlem avenue, to contain a 1,400 seat theater, seven stories and twenty-nine two and three room apartments. Provision is being made to install a 500 seat balcony in the theater at a later date should this be needed. The lot is 157x213 feet. William P. Whitney is the architect. H. O. Stone & Co. are underwriting a $75,000 bond issue at a later date should this be needed. The fifteen apartments at the southeast corner of Arthur and Hoyne have been sold by Barney Taken to Emil Forwald for a reported $125,000, subject to $75,000. The buyer took in part payment eight flats at $20,000 each, Magnolia avenue at $50,000, subject to $35,000. John J. Kern & Co. were brokers.

INCREASE IS REPORTED IN COTTON CONSUMPTION

World's consumption of American cotton during the last six months was 8,280,000 bales, against 7,425,000 bales last year, or an increase of 855,000 bales. Consumption was by the International Cotton Advisory Committee, which figures with a margin of error in favor of the United States. These figures, with a margin of error in favor of the United States, revealed a stronger trend and brought about a revision of the cotton market. Prices responded fairly to the news. At the close futures in Chicago were mostly 6 to 10 points higher, with other markets 2 to 10 points higher. Spot prices ranged from 17.50 to 18.50, with New Orleans, 18.50; Houston, 18.50; and Galveston, 18.50.

Chicagoans Throng to Sulphur Springs for Easter Season

By THALIA

Since 1878, White Sulphur Springs, Va., has lured fashionables from all over the country to daily in its attractive environs in springtime, and this year there will be more Chicagoans there for the coming Easter season than ever before. The practice of visiting the school boys and girls for their spring recesses has been waxing increasingly popular since the last few years, and many of the parents who have been passing the time in Florida are planning to visit the local of their activities to the northward.

The Charles Garfield Kings, who have been going to the Springs for many years, are planning to be there in April with their daughter, Miss Barbara King, and their son, Garfield, who is a member of the regulars who will be back for Easter. The Joseph A. Kings, who have been going to the Springs for many years, are planning to be there in April with their daughter, Miss Barbara King, and their son, Garfield, who is a member of the regulars who will be back for Easter.

ENGAGED

Other Chicagoans having reservations for the Easter season include Mrs. and Mrs. Paul Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gillette, Mrs. Brad Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. Byron T. Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Brunner, Mr. and Mrs. W. Tracy Alden, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walker, and Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, all of whom are due to arrive on April 14. Dr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Talbot, who are going with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar W. Johnson, Mrs. John T. McGuire, who plans to get away the last of this month, Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Knox, Mr. and Mrs. E. Norcott, Mrs. Henry W. Farnum, Mrs. Oda Hinckley, Elson Thompson, and Bruce Borkland.

Reservations for the luncheon today at the English Speaking union at the Argonne hotel have been made by Mrs. Frank H. Scott, Miss Louise Scott, Mrs. Wentworth Field, Mrs. Henry K. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kane, Mrs. Frederic W. Upham, Mr. Jacob Baur, Mrs. Howard Van Shaw, A. N. Marquis, Mrs. George Mason, and Mrs. Hollister Sturges. John Black Atkins, political editor of the Spectator, will be present and will speak on "Present Anglo-American Relations." The editor of the Spectator is Evelyn Wrench, who presided at the English Speaking union. Mrs. Owen Aldis, Chicago's first woman to be elected to the position of her office yesterday after a three months' stay at the Ambassador hotel, is to visit relatives of her husband in Philadelphia and return before sailing on March 23 to resume her residence in Paris until next winter when she will return.

News comes from Pasadena, Cal., of a party dinner party given at the Hotel Maryland a few days ago by Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Clow of Lake Forest and Dr. and Mrs. Frank R. Jones of 1801 Kenwood avenue. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Jeff, Mrs. A. F. P. Fanta, Miss Gloria Clark, Miss Helen and Miss Marion Clow.

The distinguished guest committee of the Drama League, which has been unusually active this year, announced a luncheon on March 29 at the Stevens hotel, this one for the all-star cast of "Diplomacy." The guests will include Miss Margaret Anglin, Miss Helen Starr, Miss Cecilia Loftis, Miss Helen Gahagan, Miss Georgeanne Jones, Miss Dorothy Fane, Mr. and Mrs. William Faversham, Jacob Ben and Mrs. Charles Loftis, Mr. and Mrs. Peters, Tyrone Powers, and Mr. and Mrs. George Renavant.

Mrs. Donald Frost of Boston is in town to visit her mother, Mrs. Edward H. Bennett of 43 East Burrington place and his son, Edward H. Bennett, Jr., who is to leave today for Santa Barbara, Cal., to be the guests of Thomas D. Jones and his sister, Mrs. Gwethalyn Jones. They will return in mid-April.

The Prentiss Connellys, who manage a find themselves often enough with Chicago crowd, even though they've been east, are down at Alhambra, 11 C. where are most of their erstwhile neighbors and friends who share with them enthusiasm for things of the outdoors.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Brentano of the Hotel Belmont have returned from a month's stay in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Moses Wentworth of 1240 Lake Shore drive has departed for Honolulu to join her son, Hunt Wentworth, and the Kimball Salsburgs will return in another month.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Drake Jr. of 111 Lake Shore drive are leaving Chicago Saturday night to spend the month in Nassau.

Miss Mary Barnes, debutante daughter of the Nelson L. Barnes of 1120 Lake Shore drive, is on her way to Cuba with Miss Louise F. Carr and her father, Robert F. Carr. The party left California recently for their cruise through the Panama canal and will return to Chicago before mid-April.

Americans in Paris.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

PARIS, March 8.—Norman F. Blesman of Chicago, Hugo Stake of Riverdale, J. D. Adler of Winnetka, and Mrs. P. Kelly of Orange, N. J., registered at the Paris office of THE TRIBUNE today.

Miss Bina West Deneen, daughter of the senator from Chicago, departed tonight to spend the week-end in Wilmington, Del., as the guest of her classmate at Bryn Mawr, Miss Madeleine Pierce.

Young Artists Have Call in Night's Music

It might as well have been called young artists' night. Lilian Roberts ended the series of winners of the Society of American Musicians' contest by appearing with the Chicago Symphony orchestra and playing Saint-Saens' Concerto for cello, and doing it uncommonly well. Her tone is not thunderous; on the contrary it sings with a clear, pure quality. It keeps to the middle of the pitch where it belongs, and with the exception of its lack of weight, she would seem to have all the cellist's technique and a first sense of musical values as well.

At the same hour Eric Russell Cooke, baritone, and Blythe Cramlet, pianist, were appearing jointly in the Young American Artists' series at Fine Arts Recital hall, and a visit there was greeted with the announcement that Barre Hill, another young Chicago baritone, had made many kinds of success by singing Carlo in "Pagliacci" and Alfio in "Cavalleria Rusticana" at a performance in Minneapolis.

Miss Cramlet, in some works by Bach and Scarlatti and Chopin's Impromptu in F-sharp, disclosed a clean performance and musical appreciation that is not quite grown up, but promising. Mr. Cooke has a better voice than he probably realizes, but hampers its quality to an undue extent by a habit of what a woodwind player would call overblowing.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., March 8.—[Special.]—Mrs. Coolidge, because of her recent illness, has discontinued her afternoon receptions and tea, when she is in the habit of receiving small groups of visitors by appointment.

The Vice President and Mrs. Dawes were guests at dinner tonight of the Spanish ambassador and Señora de Padilla.

The secretary of state and Mrs. Kellogg were the guests for whom the Norwegian minister and Mrs. Backha had a company of 24 at dinner tonight.

Mrs. H. T. Nelson gave a luncheon today at Tauscher's and had as her principal guest Mrs. Charles S. Deane.

Miss Bina West Deneen, daughter of the senator from Chicago, departed tonight to spend the week-end in Wilmington, Del., as the guest of her classmate at Bryn Mawr, Miss Madeleine Pierce.

Cheerful Nature Is Complexion Aid but Not a Cure-All

"What has a cheerful disposition to do with a good complexion?" Inquire asks. "My mother says mine would be better if I'd be more cheerful about it."

A cheerful disposition affects a complexion for the better, of course, but if one were suffering any complexion ills she'd have to call on more than her disposition to remedy it. People with cheerful dispositions have better digestions than those who are cheerless. They eliminate all the physical difficulties that nerves and worry and impatience and haste stamp on faces. It's a known fact that the better health you have the more brilliant your complexion will be. And also that a disturbed digestive state, faulty elimination, and poor blood circulation affect the complexion in various ways.

One can, of course, be cheerfully helpful about remedying any facial blemish. But the cheer alone will not get rid of blackheads and pimples, or freckles and tan, or whatever ails the face temporarily. It would be just as well to say that a cheerful disposition will preserve the teeth. It's the cheerful application of the toothbrush and periodical visits to the dentist, and the right kind of diet, that prevent a complexion from becoming unattractive.

A complexion, after all, will not thrive on careless treatment any more than the teeth will. Of paramount importance to the beauty is good circulation of blood, exercise, diet, fresh air, and a certain amount of regular daily local attention. This latter involves cleansing with a good cream, then washing the face with soap and water, after which you feed it the astringents or lubricating creams it stands in need of.

If there are such disorders as blackheads and pimples, a more strenuous treatment is called for. What the cheerful disposition really does is to light up the expression so that a blemish or two may pass unnoted in the general charm lent by the blithe spirit. A cheerful disposition is to the face what cleverly applied rouge is to the skin. It gives it a warmth of color that attracts, and at the same reacts happily upon the spirits.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

SOPHIE K.: A GIRL OF 15, FIVE feet three inches, should weigh 115 pounds. You need to lose a few pounds. Send stamped addressed envelope for my booklet, "Gaining Weight," and in the meantime drink a quart of milk every day.

K. H.: TO PROMOTE GROWTH of your eyebrows rub yellow vaseline into them every night, being careful not to allow any to get into the eyes. Brush the eyebrows night and morning with a fine toothbrush or an eyebrow brush. It makes them glossy and trains them into shape.

Pot Luck

Once we were going away and we had a "pot luck" supper. My wife had made a white cake which I supposed we would finish that night. Everything went smoothly till it came time for the desert. Then I said to my wife, "There is too much baking powder in this cake, love." My wife answered, "Mrs. Smith made that cake; I made no more remarks on the 'pot luck'."

Child Evangelist Here to Conduct One Meeting

A slim girl, not yet sixteen, was welcomed back to Immanuel Baptist church last night with all the enthusiasm of a congregation for a pulpita favorite. Appearing just as she did when, she converted hundreds here last year, her blond hair in the same long Dutch braid, wearing the same becoming white uniform, her name well-known Bible tucked under her arm, Uldine Utley, the child evangelist, became again the idol of her audience.

In her audience were many of the 700 whom she converted a year ago. She will go on to Florida today.

Amherst Alumni Here to Dine New President

Dr. Arthur Stanley Pease, newly elected president of Amherst college, will be the principal guest at a dinner to be given in the Blackstone hotel tonight by Amherst alumni of Chicago.

Among the speakers will be Wallace Rumsay, president of the Williams Alumni association; G. E. Andrews, president of the Wesleyan Alumni association; and the Rev. John Timothy Stone, Louis G. Caldwell, president of the Amherst club of Chicago, will preside at the dinner.

Work for Blind Students Asked by Training School

An appeal for work for the blind and partially blind at the Chicago Light house, the training school conducted by the Improvement association for blind people at 3323 West 23d street, has been sent to manufacturing industries in Chicago. Clayton Mark, member of the board of advisers of the Lighthouse, issued the plea. The Lighthouse was built at a cost of $50,000 to replace the old structure left by the board of education. Here blind men and women are trained to do such work as machine operating, sorting, packing, assembling, and chair caning.

Every Man Wants to Feel Proud of His Wife, Authors Say

BY DORIS BLAKE.

"No man can be thoroughly happy unless he can be proud of his wife, and no wife can feel stimulated by the pride she reads in her husband's eyes and voice when he presents her to his friends."

Prof. Ernest R. Groves and his wife, co-authors of "Wholesome Marriage" [Houghton Mifflin Co.] in which appears the above extract, remind wives that it is harder to keep a man's affection at top-notch than it was to capture it.

Keeping the husband proud of her is the co-authors' formula for keeping his affection at top-notch.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, March 8.—[Special.]—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reed of Tuxedo Park are at the De Soto, Savannah, Ga.

Count and Countess de Benque are at the Ambassador from Washington. Mr. James W. Gerard arrived today from Nassau, Bahamas.

Lady Ashley is to arrive from England on Tuesday and will be at the Ambassador.

Mrs. E. Morris De Peyster gave a dinner party at Sherry's last evening.

DORIS BLAKE ANSWERS

Avoid the Flirt.

"Dear Miss Blake: I love my boy friend dearly, but lose confidence in him when he flirts. He claims he has to be sociable. Worried."

There's a difference between flirting and being sociable. Worried. Flirting is not a commendable trait.

Wants to Telephone

"Dear Miss Blake: I met a fellow whose phone number I knew. Would it be proper to call him up?"

SEVENTEEN.

It isn't a wise plan to call up boys, particularly one you have met so recently. Seventeen.

WOMAN'S GREATEST CHARM DECIDED

Hollywood agrees no one can star without Smooth Skin

LOS ANGELES, CAL.—The public demands exquisite smooth skin in women, says the leading film directors. No girl without a beautiful smooth skin has ever proved popular enough to star. They can't pass the test of the close-up without "Studio Skin," as it's called in Hollywood.

Under the strong blazing Klieg lights the slightest imperfection will show. "The cleverest make-up artist doesn't hide a blemish, she removes it," says Doris Kenyon, the First National star. Lux Toilet Soap is made by Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Massachusetts.

WOMAN'S GREATEST CHARM DECIDED

Hollywood agrees no one can star without Smooth Skin

LOS ANGELES, CAL.—The public demands exquisite smooth skin in women, says the leading film directors. No girl without a beautiful smooth skin has ever proved popular enough to star. They can't pass the test of the close-up without "Studio Skin," as it's called in Hollywood.

Under the strong blazing Klieg lights the slightest imperfection will show. "The cleverest make-up artist doesn't hide a blemish, she removes it," says Doris Kenyon, the First National star. Lux Toilet Soap is made by Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Massachusetts.
